Cuts lead to planned day centre closures

TWO day care centres for elderly people are set to close as part of sweeping cuts.

The Oakdene Day Centre in Burntwood and Great Wyrley Day Centre have been earmarked for closure in August. The buildings will then be put on the market and sold by Staffordshire County Council.

Council bosses said the closures would save the authority around £631,521. They blame the move on falling user numbers and unsuitable ageing buildings.

Forty-eight people work at the centres and it is believed some jobs will go. Other workers will be relocated elsewhere.

Concerned

Burntwood North County Councillor Sue Woodward said: "I have been concerned about the remaining service users and where they will go."

Oakdene Day Centre has a capacity for 60 elderly people and is currently used by around 21. Fifteen members of staff work at the centre.

Great Wyrley Day Centre has a capacity for 110 elderly people but is used by an average 23. Thirty-three people work there.

Elderly people using the centres will be sent to other facilities nearby, run by charities or organisations.

Parking fines on increase

THE number of parking tickets handed out across Cannock Chase has gone up by nearly a quarter in a year, new figures reveal.

In the 12 months from April 2013, 7,221 penalty charge notices were issued – up from 5,739 a year before.

Cannock Council leader George Adamson questioned the service, which is still running at a loss.

The total includes some 1,585 handed out in the first three months this year, an increase of 94. But 1,333 of fines were cancelled.

Couple's stunning garden opens to the public

Mary Blundell from Station Street, Cheslyn Hay in her lovely gar-

THEY have been opening their beautiful garden to the public for the past 10 years.

And this weekend married couple Mary and David Blundell say they hope the sun will shine so they can celebrate the special landmark in style.

The Blundells are opening the gate to their half-acre garden at their home in Cheslyn Hay to the public on Sunday (May 18) in aid of cancer charities.

Mrs Blundell said: "After the fairly mild winter, the garden probably looks the best it ever has.

"It's stunning at the moment."

The picturesque garden features an array of unusual rhododendrons, azaleas and shrubs, as well as gazebos and a hidden wildlife pool.

Refreshments and homemade cakes will be on offer to visitors. Plants will also be on sale.

The Blundells, who are retired, have opened their outdoor idyll to the public as part of the National Gardens Scheme (NGS) for the past 10 years.

Mrs Blundell added: "We received an award from NGS in March to celebrate 10 years of us doing this.

"We like to think of its as showing off for a good cause."

Mrs Blundell, a former businesswoman, said gardening was her and her husband's 'passion'.

The garden at Dorset House, 68 Station Street is open from 11am-5pm. Admission is £3.

TRIBUTES TO BRAVE STEPHEN

TRIBUTES to courageous Stephen Sutton have flooded in as his school and comedian Jason Manford led glowing testimonials to the inspirational teenager.

The 19-year-old from Burntwood, who had incurable cancer, died yesterday (Wednesday) at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham surrounded by his family. His mother Jane broke the news on her son's Facebook blog, speaking of her 'courageous, selfless, inspirational son'

Stuart Jones, head of Chase Terrace Technology College, where Stephen had been a student since 2006, spoke of the school's 'enormous loss.'

In a glowing tribute he described the teenager as 'academically brilliant, an excellent sportsman and a talented musician.'

He said: "He was also a caring, modest, creative young person with a great sense of fun. Those of us who knew him feel very privileged to have done so."

Touched

Comic Jason Manford, who visited him twice in hospital and made a personal donation of £10,000 to Stephen's fundraising campaign for The teenage Cancer Trust, said he was 'the most inspiring person I've ever met.'

He said the A-star pupil who raised £3.22 million for the charity and launched a bucket list of things to do before he died, 'touched more lives than he will ever know.'

He said: "He was an incredibly positive young man and a credit to his family, to Burntwood and to humanity itself.

"In his darkest hour he selflessly dedicated his final moments to raising millions of pounds for teenagers with cancer."

One of Stephen's last outings earlier this month was to his old school for a successful attempt to get into the Guinness Book of World Records when 500 people gathered to make a heart-shaped hand gesture.

by Marion Brennan

Mr Jones said Stephen had persuaded staff and students to join him on a sponsored sky-dive, another of his bucket-list items. He was in school most weeks, using it as a base for his fundraising activities, even getting involved in five-a-side football games on his crutches.

Stephen was the guest of honour at the school's presentation evening this year where he was presented with an award, created in his honour, for being an inspiration.

Mr Jones said: "The resilience and strength of character that Stephen has shown over the last couple of years is extraordinary. "The school and the wider community of Burntwood are immensely proud of what Stephen achieved.

"We will miss him enormously but he leaves an amazing legacy. He is the most exceptional personal I have ever known."

Hopes on retaining Ivy House interior

CANNOCK Chase Parliamentary candidate Janos Toth has stressed 'the best of both worlds can be achieved' after plans to demolish the historic Ivy House were turned down.

Planners rejected Wrekin Housing Trust proposals to bulldoze the 143-year-old former workhouse and maternity hospital in Wolverhampton Road in favour of 12 houses and four flats.

Campaigners had collected a 1,173-name petition against the plans.

Margaret Price, of Wolverhampton Road said: "The retention of this building is vital for the area."

Priority

Conservative group leader Councillor Paul Snape said: "Keeping buildings like this in Cannock should be a priority."

Councillor Maureen Freeman added: "This building means a lot to so many people."

Mr Toth said he would work to ensure the developers refurbished the building internally.

"The Wrekin Housing Trust have an opportunity to work in partnership to devise a scheme in which our historic building is kept and housing provision provided.

"The best of both worlds can be achieved," he said.

Taylor is back on old ground

HEDNESFORD Town player Kris Taylor will return to Walsall for a charity game – just weeks after returning to action following testicular cancer treatment.

Taylor, aged 30, who underwent surgery and chemotherapy, will join other old favourites in the Mad Dog team against a Cool Cats team of supporters.

Kick off is 7.30pm at the Banks's Stadium on Thursday, May 22. Admission will be £2 for adults and £1 for concessions.

Nest box milestone for wildlife trust

A WILDLIFE group has reached a major milestone in the number of nest boxes installed across the county.

Staffordshire Barn Owl Action Group (BOAG), based at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's HQ at the Wolseley Centre near Rugeley, have installed their 400th nest box box at a site in Ipstones near Leek.

Set up in 2005, the group have so far counted 204 pairs of owls and 471 chicks nesting in the boxes.

Helen Cottam from Staffordshire Barn Owl Action Group said, "As the numbers of barn owls have dramatically declined over the last century, the barn owl nest box scheme has proved to be a very effective way to help in the conservation of this beautiful farmland bird.

"The provision of nest boxes in grassland areas provides opportunities for roosting and nesting barn owls where nest sites have been lost due to barn conversions and the felling of old hollow trees, and is an effective means of helping with barn owl conservation."

Wildlife trust monitoring officer Scott Petrek said: "The barn owl has seen a dramatic decline in numbers with the prolonged cold weather we had this time last year having a further negative impact.

"We're appealing for members of the public to send us their sightings to help us to build an up-to-date picture of barn owl distribution across Staffordshire, and locate areas of most significant decline."

To sending in sightings visit www.staffs-wildlife.org.uk/barnowlappeal.

New staffing crisis at problem hospital

A STAFFING crisis at scandal-hit Stafford Hospital is getting worse. Bosses say they are looking for scores of nurses but cannot get enough applications.

The hospital is facing a shortage of 85 full-time equivalent nurses and midwives – the fifth month in a row that the figure has increased.

But health chiefs admit the response to advertised vacancies has been 'poor'.

Several hopefuls keep applying even though they have already been told they are not suitable.

The Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust – which is being dissolved – wants a maximum of four per cent of nursing posts to be vacant – but the current total is 11 per cent. Bosses admit the situation is not likely to improve soon. In March alone, 43 staff left and just 18 were recruited.

Bosses say the main areas of concern are consultant posts in radiology, A&E and elderly care.

Response

A report by Chris Plant, head of corporate human resources, states: "The trust continues to recruit, although the response to the general medical/surgical advertisement has been poor for March, with only 11 candidates being forwarded for shortlisting with an interview in April.

"Volume of applicants is very low, with several candidates – many of whom are known to the Trust and who have previously found to be not appointable – still making multiple applications."

He adds: "Vacancies will be monitored closely and appropriate action taken. The likelihood is that the trust will remain above four per cent for the foreseeable future, however."

It comes despite 29 new nurses being taken on in November and December last year to plug a shortage.

Rolling along for a day of competition

A ROLLER derby team hosts the third day of a top competition in Cannock this weekend.

Wolverhampton Honours Rollers will stage the Heartland Series for the North East Division at Chase Leisure Centre, Stafford Road, on Saturday, May 17.

Doors will open at 3pm with the first bout being battled out by Rebellion Roller Derby and Nottingham Roller Girls.

The sport became popular in the 1950s and this club has been running since 2010.

Proceeds will go the group's chosen charity The Haven Wolverhampton – which supports people who are vulnerable and are experiencing domestic violence and abuse.

All money raised through sales and collecting will help women have their own team to guide them out of trouble.

Wolverhampton Honour Rollers spokesman Nicola Sephton said: "We are really proud to be part of the Heartlands Series."

Tickets are £7 and can be bought at http://whrollers.bigcartel.com

A STORE worker hopes his film won't be left in the Cannes when he travels to France to promote his short movie.

Christian Evans, who worked at Sainsbury's at Orbital Way, has written, directed and starred in Ochus Bochus. The 17-minute film is about conmen magicians getting into trouble with a Casino boss. It was shot in Cannock, Lichfield, Birmingham and Bristol and premiered at Cannock's Electric Palace Picture House.

It has now been accepted as part of the Cannes Film Festival's short film corner. Christian was jetting out yesterday (Wednesday) to screen and promote the film, and to hopefully get it distributed.

He said: "I'm hoping it's the beginning of a bright and prosperous future in the film business."

Meanwhile, generous customers have donated £1,200 in just three days for the Stephen's Story bucket collection in aid of the Teenage Cancer Trust on behalf of inspirational Burntwood man Stephen Sutton.

Plea over awards ahead of ceremony

A RURAL policing group is asking people to submit their nominations ahead of its annual awards ceremony on November 27.

Staffordshire's Rural Policing Liaison Group is holding the ceremony at The Moat House, in Acton Trussell.

Nominations are being sought for the young people's award, farmer's conservation award and the wildlife conservation award.

Bird expert David Tideswell will give a talk at the event, which will include a three-course meal. Tickets are on sale and cost £25.

Prizes

Faye Burton, founder and group chairman, said: "The event is in its 15th year and it keeps getting bigger and bigger.

"We need people to get their nominations in for members of the public who have done good work for Staffordshire's conservation."

The group is also appealing for donations to give out as raffle prizes.

Proceeds from the ticket sales will go towards fighting wildlife crime.

Call Ms Burton on 07973 665996 for more information.

National firms set for last two units

TWO national chains are set to take over the final two units at a retail park in Cannock.

The Linkway Park off the A5 at Longford island, was previously struggling but has seen Poundland and Dunelm Mill open so far this year.

Now bosses have revealed deals are set to be signed for the final two units with two unnamed national companies. It would mean the park will be full for the first time in years.

The Focus DIY store shut in 2012 – sparking a revamp of the site to attract new tenants.

Dunelm opened a store there in March, with 40 people employed there. Poundland created 20 jobs with its new outlet last month.

The former Focus store was transformed into one main unit and three smaller ones, while Halfords became two separate shops.

The park, which is home to McDonald's and Halfords, was the first out-of-town shopping site to be built in Cannock back in 1988.

Brian Thompson, a director at chartered surveyors Thompson Heaney, said: "We have two national retailers that should have contracts signed in the next couple of weeks."

Pub sign to be removed

A PUB must remove a sign after complaints it was blocking one belonging to a neighbouring social club.

Bosses at the White Hart in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock, installed two new signs in a recent revamp but Cannock Social Club says one of them blocks motorists' view of its name.

Council planners found the pub did not have planning permission and agreed to one but not the other.

White Hart boss Rab Campbell, who took over in December, said the signs had already been installed when he moved in.

Teaching charge

A MAN banned from teaching under-18s has appeared before Cannock magistrates accused of applying for a maths teaching job. Mark Gethin, 48, of Nicholls Way, Cannock, gave no indication of plea. He was bailed until a plea and management hearing on August 18.

£70,000 is raised in memory of Zoe

Zoe Teale died aged 23

THE parents of a a woman who died suddenly in her sleep have smashed their target of raising £10,000 for charity.

Peter and Julie Teale began fundraising for CRY (Cardiac Risk in the Young) after their 23-year-old daughter Zoe died from an undetected heart condition in 2009.

They initially set out to raise £10,000 but have received £70,000 in donations and through fundraising activities.

Zoe, a former Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School pupil, worked at the Fitness First gym in Wednesbury and was an enthusiastic swimmer for 10 years, having competed for Bilston Swimming Club and Birmingham University, where she studied for a sports degree. Since her death, her parents have helped screen more than 1,000 young people to raise awareness.

Mr Teale from Cheslyn Hay, said: "Zoe had an incredible zest for life and it has been absolutely devastating to have her taken away from us.

"People don't know they have a heart defect until it is too late so that is why it's important they get themselves screened.

"To raise £70,000 is a tremendous achievement. I didn't think we would even reach £10,000."

Mr Teale, a teacher at Old Swinford Hospital boarding school in Stourbridge, has organised a heart screening event at Aston Villa Football Club on June 7 and 8 for people aged 14-35 to get tested.

To book visit www.testmyheart.org or to make a donation in Zoe's memory visit ww.justgiving.com/Zoe-means-life

Mr Teale, aged 52, added: "The event has been organised for people to get themselves checked out so that they don't have to go through what we have as a family.

"I honestly think heart screening should be made compulsory in all schools across the country because it would help save a lot of lives.

"I don't want people to forget Zoe I want them to continue to fundraise and keep her in their memory."

Row over cash on homes at old police station ends

PLANS for 14 homes on the site of a former police station in Hednesford are set to go ahead after a financial wrangle was resolved.

The development in Anglesey Street has been in the pipeline for five years but has hit a series of obstacles.

Developers Cannock Property Services have now said they can afford to pay the amount required as part of permission being granted.

The figure, which would pay for environmental improvements, has been reduced from £68,300 to £57,300 after Cannock Council planning chiefs agreed.

They argued it would be better for the work to finally start rather than continue to fight for the extra cash.

Planning committee member Mike Grocott said: "We need to realise this is all we are going to get if we want these houses in Hednesford.

Forward

"We could either keep bouncing back and forward over the money or we can accept we will not get any more and just get on with it."

A total of 10 three-bedroom houses, three four-bedroom homes and one three-bedroom bungalow will be built.

The police station first closed in 1994. It reopened again in 2007 but has since been knocked down.

Since then a series of plans have been drawn up for the site but work has never started.

Hednesford Councillor Gordon Ball said: "It's not an ideal situation with the reduction in contributions to infrastructure but it is better than nothing and at least it means something will be done there now."

Briggs wins logistics firm deal

FORKLIFT truck supplier Briggs Equipment has won a multi-million pound contract to supply a mix of equipment to leading logistics company Bibby Distribution.

The Cannock-based business beat off temders from 11 other potential suppliers to secure the order.

Bibby Distribution has ordered 146 machines for use both indoors and outside. Of these, 102 are Yale counterbalance forklift trucks, with the remainder being warehousing equipment, cleaning machines and versatile articulated vehicles.

The company has so far taken delivery of 70 machines, which will be put to use at 25 of its sites throughout the UK.

"We were very impressed by Briggs Equipment's understanding of the changing face of logistics its ability to offer real flexibility in materials handling solutions and its willingness to work closely with us to determine the most appropriate equipment mix," said Bibby head of marketing Jonathan Rose.

Charity makes plea for donations

Chairman Bob Heighway at the Special Needs Adventure Playground, in Pye Green Road, Cannock

A CHARITY which runs an adventure playground supporting youngsters with special needs is appealing for donations.

Snap, in Pye Green Road, Cannock, offers indoor and outdoor play areas and is used by youngsters from across the West Midlands but even gets bookings from Yorkshire.

The site is kitted out with adventure playground equipment such as swings and roundabouts that are specially adapted for wheelchairs. But the charity, launched in 2003, needs £60,000 a year to function.

Chairman Bob Heighway said: "We have very little funding and although we have received some money from local government in the past, we can't guarantee we will get any so we rely on donations from the public."

"We recently held a bucket collection at Hednesford Town Football Club which was very successful and we hold regular bag packings at supermarkets. Our most recent donation was from Swift Roofing Services in Cannock who donated £1,500 which will go towards paying staff and bills and buying new play equipment."

The centre, which has seven staff, hosts birthday parties and uses the money from bookings to keep running. It houses outdoor adventure play equipment, an indoor soft play area, craftand multi-sensory rooms.

To donate, email info@snapcannock.co.uk or visit www.snapcannock.co.uk.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

HOW can we comprehend the passing of centuries? That great observer Matthew Parris uses the late Queen Mother's lifespan of 101 years as a yardstick: "Nine Queen Mothers laid end to end will take you all the way back to the Vikings."

"IT will feel quite warm, given the strength of the May sun, but conversely in the rain it will feel quite chilly." From this month's long-term weather forecast by the Met Office. And I dare say the wind will be occasionally blowy and the nights somewhat darker than the days.

"I SAY with some pride that I had a state education; school, university. None of it cost me or my parents a penny. It's a situation which young people in education today can only dream of and this is wrong." Alan Bennett, just turned 80. And he's right. The snag is that in Bennett's day only a small percentage of teenagers were considered bright enough for university. They were seen as a national asset to be nurtured. The rest of us got jobs. As such elitism is no longer acceptable, we now send half of our kids to university, creating tens of thousands of graduates who seem to know nothing about anything.

OUR changing language. A patient at a hospital in Liverpool was accidentally given a vasectomy during a minor op. The hospital trust says this was only its second "never event." The term is used to describe something that should never happen. Yet a "never event" is, by definition, something that has happened. How about the simpler and more honest expression "cock up"?

WHILE you're wincing at the price of your latte, consider this expert opinion on the coffee caper. Duncan Rayner, a lifelong coffee merchant, tells the Daily Telegraph: "With quality ariba coffees costing around £1.75 a kilo raw, and yields as high as 200 cups per kilo, it is difficult to make a cup of coffee cost more than 2.5p."

AN APOLOGY on behalf of tabloids everywhere. In recent years they may have created the impression that binge-drinking, smoking and gross obesity are undesirable. Headlines such as "Binge-drunk yobs – the shame of our nation" and "Chain-smoking lard-arse slappers stole my burger van" could imply public drunkenness and over-eating are social evils. However, having studied Ed Miliband's plans for compulsory sugar reduction, minimum alcohol prices and a smoke-free generation (Daily Mail headline: "Red Ed - We will force you to get fit"), the tabloids now recognise that smoking, alcoholism and obesity are in fact precious human rights of all freeborn Brits, to be protected at all costs. Cheers!

A REPORT suggests by 2050 up to one-third of people living in Britain will be from ethnic minorities. Not surprising, half the world is on the move, no-one knows how to stop it and we should be grateful we live in a country that people want to enter, rather than leave.

THERE is no excuse for the spate of petty vandalism and theft reported this week at Auschwitz. The Nazi extermination camp in Poland should be one of the most hallowed places on earth. And yet the daily influx of school trips, the constant clicking of cameras and the huge coach parks do create the unfortunate first impression that Auschwitz is just another tourist spot.

SCIENTISTS in the States have discovered that old mice benefit mentally and physically from transfusions of blood from younger mice. The next step is to see whether the same effects will be found with humans. Do you suspect a number of humans are already fully aware of the benefits of such transfusions? I wouldn't mind betting some sports coaches are way ahead of the scientists.

Bull terriers seeking new owners

A DOG rehoming charity is looking to match up three Staffordshire Bull Terriers with a new owners.

Rugeley Dog Welfare is a volunteer-run organisation led by Ruth Dewis and Pauline Roberts who work to find loving homes for canines.

Ruth and Pauline rehome dogs both directly and also in support of Swan Pit Animal Rescue in Gnosall.

Finley is a three-year-old, Rocky is around six years-old, and there is a third Staffie aged around five.

Ruth said: "Finley was handed in due to changes to circumstances of his owner.

Friendly

"He is a very friendly, loyal chap who loves his home comforts. He walks well on the lead.

"He really deserves a forever loving home."

Ruth added: "We also have two other male Staffies, one was handed in as his owner was not allowed to take him with her.

His name is Rocky and is around six-years-old, a very gentle chap, the other is a red male again five or six years-old, his owner as gone into a hospice and the family can not have him, can be strong on the lead, but a very loyal chap.

"Plus there are many more newcomers looking for their new homes."

A home check and donation will be required.

No small turnout as iconic car celebrated

by Tom Mason

THOUSANDS of Mini enthusiasts turned out to celebrate the iconic car once manufactured in the West Midlands.

More than 3,000 enthusiasts turned out for the British Mini show in the grounds of Himley Hall.

This is the 22nd time the show has been held at the 18th century venue near Dudley and the crowds were able to enjoy a selection of trade stands and club displays. They even had a chance to win one of the classic motors for as little as £1 in a raffle.

One of the cars on display was a convertible Mini Limousine built by Mick Wooton from Chasetown.

The white car is believed to be one of only four known to exist in the world.

His wife Elizabeth said: "We were married in a Mini Limousine ourselves and decided to build our own.

"It took my husband six years to complete but for the last two years it has sat in the garage and we went along to Himley with plans to sell it.

Business

"We have had a lot of interest from people wanting to use it for their weddings so now we have decided to keep it and make a business out of it."

Chris Clougher brought along his 1963 Mk1 Morris Mini to show off and even took home a trophy after coming third in the Concours competition.

The 47-year-old from Aldridge, said: "There was a lot to see and do and we had a look around the large auto-jumble and trade stands for the parts we needed."

The event is run by the British Mini Club, which this year is celebrating the car's 55th anniversary.

Organiser David Hollis said the show attracted people from across the UK as well as Europe as far afield as Japan.

"We were battling the weather forecast a bit over the weekend and visitor numbers where slightly down on previous years, but once the sun came out it was a brilliant day."

Boy's leg is broken after fall at school

A TEENAGER was airlifted to hospital when he broke his leg slipping over in the playground.

The incident happened at Fair Oak College in Penkridge Bank Road, Rugeley.

An ambulance, a rapid response car and the Midlands Air Ambulance were sent to the scene after an emergency call at 1.15pm on Monday.

West Midlands Ambulance Service spokesman Murray MacGregor said: "On arrival, crews found a 13 year old boy who had fallen in the wet outside.

Splint

"The aircrew were able to give him advanced pain relief so that he could have his right leg manipulated and then be put in a splint.

"He was then carried to the air ambulance, which had landed on the playing fields, before being flown to the major trauma centre at University Hospital North Staffordshire."

Ash in feat of endurance

A GREAT Wyrley man will endure a test of strength to raise money in memory of a seven-year-old girl.

Ash Perry is taking part in the Iron Man UK triathlon in July – a 2.4 mile swim, a 112-mile cycle and a 26-mile run – in aid leukaemia and lymphona research. It comes following the death of Ava Mae Titley from acute myeloid leukaemia. To donate visit www.justgiving.com/ashley-perry or text ATAP79 £10 (or suggested amount) to 70070.

A fashion show will raise cash for the cause. It has been organised by Glitzy Bits and takes place at Old Wyrley Hall, Olde Hall Lane, on Monday, May 19 from 7pm.

Cutting ribbon at charity shop

A CHARITY shop will officially open in Heath Hayes tomorrow (Friday).

The Blue Cross store, which supports animal charities, is already trading but will be officially launched during a tea party at the Hayes Way premises.

Councillors Bob and Diane Todd will cut the ribbon to officially unveil the charity shop.

Toddler group is extended in village

A SECOND grandparent and toddler group has been set up in Penkridge.

The group, set up by Age UK South Staffordshire, will run on a Wednesday afternoon from 1-3 at Penkridge Children's Centre, Princefield First School. Saxon Road. It follows the success of a Thursday group set up by the charity.

A new group has also been set up in Burntwood and will operate between the same times on Wednesdays at Springhill Children's Centre, Mossbank Avenue.

The groups are open to all grandparents who look after their young grandchildren during the day.

Funding

Each week the sessions have a different topic and the session leaders provide related activities to develop the children's social, emotional and personal skills.

Age UK South Staffordshire has received funding from the Big Lottery Fund to establish 10 grandparent and toddler groups across the district. Groups also run at Landywood and Featherstone, and are run by DBS checked and fully trained volunteers.

For further information call 01785 788484.

Camra branch beer festival

THE Cannock Chase subbranch of the Campaign For Real Ale has announced its first town beer festival.

It takes place from September 18-20 at the Prince of Wales Centre, in Church Street. It will be open from 5 to 11pm on the opening day and from noon to 11pm on both Friday and Saturday. Admission is £3 for the general public, £2 for members of the Armed Forces and £1 for Camra members,

There will be 60 real ales and 10 ciders/perries with food available and entertainment on the Friday night and Saturday afternoon.

Ramble dates

THE Chase & District Ramblers go on a moderate eight-mile walk at Beresford Dale and Wolfscote on Sunday, setting off from Hednesford Rail station car park, Anglesey Street. On Wednesday, they meet at the Castle Ring car park at 7pm for a five-mile trek.

Premier League B plans off target – Collymore

VILLA legend Stan Collymore has hit out at controversial plans to introduce Premier League B teams into the Football League – and revealed his own vision for the future.

FA chairman Greg Dyke wants to overhaul the 92 team football pyramid by allowing top Premiership teams to run a second team of youngsters in the lower league.

Cannock-based ex-Liverpool and England striker Collymore has hit out against the proposals which are based on similar systems in Spain and Germany and are aimed at boosting England's chances of winning future World Cups. He tweeted: "The administration of the FA let down every English football fan. It has pandered to the Premier League again.Lunacy. Protect the Pyramid!!!"

Collymore's own vision includes fast-tracked coaching for top players, making more of the Staffordshire St George's Park national training centre, overhauling the administration of the FA, giving better representation to black and Asian footballers, and reintroducing official reserve leagues.

"Many former players and aspiring coaches I speak to simply go to other UK nations or beyond to take their qualifications and I believe the FA should not only reverse this trend but aggressively look to be proactive," he said.

"The Spanish Football Association offer a fast track course to internationals with three or more caps or 200 plus appearances at the top level. We currently have a dearth of top quality English coaches. The more pros we fast track I firmly believe the coaching gems will be uncovered.

"I am an advocate of a revamp of the county association system and replace them with FA regional centres. These regional centres would be cheaper to run, need less administration than county FAs and be more in tune with modern England."

Greg Dyke's plans would see a new League Three introduced in 2016-17.

A beefed-up home-grown players' rule would require 13 members of the 25-man squad to have been trained in England as youngsters by 2020-21.

A more strictly enforced work permit system would prevent Premier League sides from having more than two non-EU players and a new loan system would allow Premier League clubs to loan up to eight players to a strategic partner below the Championship.

Earlier completion date for work at roundabouts

A LONG-awaited £2.6 million revamp of a set of traffic islands on a busy commuter route will finish four months earlier than expected.

The work on the Churchbridge interchange in Cannock involves three roundabouts connecting the A5, M6 Toll, A460 Cannock Eastern Bypass and the A34. It will start next month.

The improvements will involve a series of lane realignments, of the carriageways of the A5 on the approaches to the roundabouts.

Transport bosses originally expected work to last until March 2015 – but they now estimate it will finish by November 30 this year.

They say now the detailed plans have been drawn up for the work they have realised it can be completed quicker than they originally thought.

Cannock Council leader George Adamson welcomed the news. He said: "This work vitally needs to be done because Churchbridge can't keep going the way it is. The quicker it is completed the better."

Lobbied

The junction was last rebuilt in 2004 for the opening of the M6 Toll but drivers have been caught up in long queues along the A460 and A34, particularly during rush hour.

South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson and Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley had lobbied for action at the junction over several months.

As part of the work, the junctions will also be moved to prevent 'pinch points' creating long queues.

The roundabout islands could also be made smaller to create more space for traffic to pass around them, so there is extra room for vehicles during rush hours improving the traffic flow.

Volunteers to gather for tidy-up

A WORK party will gather tomorrow (Friday) for work on the Trent & Mersey Canal at Brindley Bank, Rugeley.

The gathering has been organised by the Inland Waterways Association.

Volunteers should meet at the bottom of the steps by the aqueduct, accessed along the renovated footpath between Albany Drive and the pumping station, off Wolseley Road.

Work will start at 9am and continue until 3pm. Tasks will include re-building the canal wall by the historic wharf, as well as repainting the aqueduct railings.

The grass and weeds will need cutting and if, there are enough volunteers, work could also include scrub-bashing and painting the handrails.

Tea, coffee and cake will be served to volunteers. Heavy duty footwear and tatty clothing will be required but other tools will be provided.

For further information call 07581 794111 or email margaret.beardsmore@waterways.org.uk

Support group is up and away

Organiser Sharlene Kollecker with Jane Lomax, Donna Carnell, Marcus Sykes, Vi Giles, Marion Heslop and Brady Kollecker

A BALLOON launch was held to mark the first meeting of a support group for parents and carers with disabled children.

Five parents turned up to the Crystal Fountain pub in St John Street, Cannock.

The meeting was held by Carers Helping All In Need South Staffs (Chain). It was set up by Sharlene Kollecker who has four children aged nine to 15 – three of whom have special educational needs. She said: "The first meeting went very well. We had five parents turn up which was good and we had a balloon launch as well.

"We talked about what needs to be done in the future to help parents and carers in our possession."

Chain will meet at the pub every fortnight on a Wednesday from 10am to midday. At the next meeting on May 21 a speaker from the organisation SkillShare will talk about free training opportunities available for parents with disabled children or youngsters with special educational needs. Mrs Kollecker, who works as a support worker and independent advocatesaid she aimed to get a maximum of 12 parents or carers to meetings in the future.

The group welcomes anyone who has children with special educational needs, learning difficulties, mental or physical disabilities, sensory difficulties or additional needs.

For more details about the support group go to www.chain-ss.org.uk

IN MY VIEW

WITH MARK ANDREWS

VITRIOLIC Apprentice candidate turned self-styled national treasure Katie Hopkins revealed her concerns about the UK's chances in the Eurovision song contest at the weekend.

Correctly, as it turned out, she predicted that Britain's Molly Smitten-Downes would struggle to win favour with the international judging panel ahead of Saturday's showdown.

"The competition is not about singing, it is about being petty and spiteful," she wrote.

Is she pitching for a crack at it next year, then? If that is the criteria, it should be a foregone conclusion.

IMAGINE, for some reason, the Russian government handed out £8,000 to disgruntled students and political activists in this country so that they could buy aerosol cans to deface rundown estates with anti-government slogans.

Do you not think Mr Cameron might be a touch annoyed? Probably some of the people living on the estates might be a little upset about having their front door redecorated, too.

Yet incredibly, that is exactly what the British Government is doing in Kenya, through a ludicrous scheme funded out of the overseas aid budget.

Organisers of the project claim it aims to 'engage with artists to spread data-based information in slums in order to empower citizens to make data-driven arguments'.

No doubt many people can think of a few 'data driven arguments' they would like to spray on whichever imbeciles dreamt up this scheme.

CONFESSION time. For something like the last 12 years I have been taking place in a tax avoidance scheme.

I'm sorry if that comes as a shock, but I honestly didn't think I was doing anything wrong. And it wasn't my fault, Gordon Brown told me to do it. Honestly.

Like millions of other people, I took the former chancellor's advice and salted some money away in an Individual Savings Account or ISA, which means I no longer have to pay tax on the pitifully low rate of interest it attracts. I guess that's the OBE out of the window, then.

TALKING of tax, a few years ago I received a letter telling me I had paid too much tax the previous year, and a cheque for around £1,500 was enclosed.

A short while later another one dropped through the letterbox, telling me I had paid too much tax for the two years before that, too. All very nice but given that HM Revenue and Customs managed to overcharge me in the first place you may understand my scepticism about George Osborne's plans to take tax debts straight out of people's bank accounts.

Aged six, when she became a star, with mum Sharon

The singer ready to perform at the family piano

Connie in action during her tour of South Korea

On song Connie's hope for stardom

CRAIG HUGHES looks at how the future is panning out for one of our brightest young stars, Connie Talbot

SHE stole the hearts of the nation as the angelic little girl with the sensational singing voice and gap-toothed grin.

It seems a long time ago since Connie Talbot started the road to stardom on Britain's Got Talent.

Now almost seven years later and at the age of 13, the Streetly singer is still proving a hit with an army of fans across the world.

The teenager has more than 158,000 Twitter followers and most recently performed to sell-out crowds in South Korea.

Forthcoming concerts will be in Indonesia and Taiwan this summer, and she met a string of famous faces including George Clooney, Carly Rae Jepsen to The Wanted.

Despite worldwide fame she has managed to stay grounded and still attends school in the West Midlands, rather than have a home tutor, and tours are planned around her holidays.

Her success has only helped to whet the appetite for more and Connie has dreams of going on to become a fully-fledged pop star.

"Hopefully in the future I will be doing my own songs and practising instruments," she tells us, shortly after arriving home from playing out with friends.

"I would really like to be a pop star. I like Taylor Swift."

Connie shot to prominence in 2007 when she wowed Simon Cowell and his fellow judges with a rendition of Over the Rainbow.

Her debut album went on to sell over 250,000 copies and reached number one in three countries.

Since then whenever the youngster posted recordings of herself on You Tube it has received millions of hits.

The teenager is writing her own songs, and plays both the piano and guitar

The worldwide draw she continues to have was further proven on her recent trip to Korea.

She performed in three sell-out concerts with 1,200 fans each time during a week-long tour during the Easter break.

It promoted her album Beautiful World, but also coincided around the time of the tragic ferry disaster which rocked the whole country and made headlines across the world.

It saw the kind-hearted teenager pledge to donate profits from her concerts to help families of the victims.

"It was really sad, everyone was really down over there. I had heard it all over the news," Connie says.

"I felt really bad for all the people, they are so welcoming, it was just unbelievably tragic."

And of the decision to donate to the cause, she admits: "Everyone was really grateful, it was the least we could do."

Her mother Sharon says it was a sad experience, but the reaction to Connie had been fantastic. "It was such a sad time to go with the ferry incident," she says. "But she had such a welcome to Korea. They just loved her. There were people turning up who couldn't get a ticket and they were waiting."

Her success in music has given the schoolgirl the chance to visit the world and perform in front of thousands of fans, the most believed to be around 25,000 at the O2 Arena.

Sharon says it is has been an experience for the entire family and great opportunity for them to have travelled the globe. Occasionally Sharon and husband Gavin, 46, will bring Connie's brother Joshua, 20, and sister Mollie, 18 along.

"It has been interesting seeing different cultures and meeting really nice people. It has given Connie the opportunity to see the world."

Despite other interests like any other teenager girl it is still music which plays an important part in Connie's life.

"She is doing a lot of songwriting herself to make it in England she realises you have got to get your own material together," says Sharon.

"In her heart she would like to be a pop star. I think she will do pop ballads, maybe like Beyonce."

Even with her fame, education still remains at the forefront for Connie, and maintaining her friends group.

"Connie loves school. We never have to ask her to do any homework," her mother says.

Connie agrees. "I do like to be at school," she adds, saying that her favourite subjects are 'music, English and art'. I do a lot of practicing on the piano and guitar," she adds.

Connie regularly treats fans to her favourite songs recorded to camera at her home and then uploaded on YouTube.

But the video which still reigns supreme is her Britain's Got Talent audition in which she blew the audience away with Somewhere Over The Rainbow. It has attracted more than 122 million views.

POLITICS

WITH DANIEL WAINWRIGHT

ARE the Liberal Democrats still a mainstream political party?

A look at the lists of candidates nominated for council elections in the West Midlands would suggest not. They have only managed to put someone up to stand for them in just over a quarter of the seats up for grabs in the Black Country, Cannock Chase and Wyre Forest.

Nick Clegg was the butt of Labour's joke in its latest party political broadcast, a snide piece of class warfare that was an unfunny parody of B-movie sci-fi combined with Harry Enfield's Mr Cholmondley Warner; with not a single piece of policy to be seen.

It portrayed the Lib Dem leader as an 'un-credible shrinking man' over broken promises such as scrapping tuition fees. The sad thing for the Deputy Prime Minister is he's a man being kicked when he is down.

And while the Black Country was never really Liberal Democrat heartland, pop over the border into Cannock Chase and it was only four years ago that they were the biggest party. Now they have people standing for them in just six out of 13 wards.

So no-one can really blame Labour for making an appeal to the disaffected voters who have abandoned the Lib Dems. They need a champion and Ed Miliband wants to be it.

Shrewd

It's a shrewd, if spitefully handled, move to try to bring them into the fold, given that the European Union cheerleaders stand utterly opposed to the prime raison d'être of Ukip (Wolverhampton's recent ex-Lib Dem turned Ukip councillor Malcolm Gwinnett aside).

I rang up the Lib Dem press office to put the question of whether they are still a mainstream party to them.The man who answered the phone sounded as though it was the most ridiculous thing he'd ever heard, as though I was asking if the sun was going to rise tomorrow. He replied: "Well, of course we are, we're in government."

Later on I got the reply that the party was still fielding more candidates than Ukip anywhere else in the country. After weeks of reading about the Eurosceptics, I wouldn't blame anyone for having Farage Fatigue. But Ukip are presenting themselves as a mainstream party now – around here anyway. They have a fraction of the party membership of the Tories but managed to stand in the vast majority of wards.

The Conservatives, as the senior party in Government, should be standing everywhere without exception. But they failed to apply to put anyone up in West Bromwich Central, leaving a two-horse race – Labour and Ukip. Anyone there who might put themselves to the right of centre may feel pretty cheesed off at the lack of choice.

Golden days as couple celebrate

Golden wedding couple John and Mavis Bentley

A CANNOCK couple who met at a pub known as 'Clogger's' are celebrating 50 years of marriage.

John and Mavis Bentley first got together at the Littleton Arms in Huntington. It was given its nickname after the landlord who worked as a clogger – the men who installed the roof supports – in the pit opposite.

The couple, of Georgian Place, also spent time at Huntington Working Men's Club, dubbed The Nip because miners would often 'nip in' for a pint after their shift finished.

They tied the knot on May 16, 1964 at Cannock Registry Office and will mark the milestone with a family meal.

Mr Bentley, aged 74, spent six years as a regular soldier with the Royal Signals. For most of his working life he was a self-employed carpenter/joiner. His wife, 73, worked at the Lotus shoe factory in Stafford and at English Electric.

They have three sons, a daughter and six grandchildren.

Mrs Bentley said: "We've had our ups and downs but if it didn't work we wouldn't be celebrating 50 years together."

Bar keeps licence in spite of its poor record

A CANNOCK pub has been allowed to keep its licence, despite having one the worst records in its area for the number of times police have been called out.

Officers visited Club Lounge, Church Street on 45 occasions between January 2013 and February this year, a licensing committee meeting heard.

by Charlotte Lilley

And two door staff were dismissed following a police sting operation when staff were caught selling alcohol to two girls aged 15 and 17.

Issues

Seventeen conditions were imposed on licensee Mark Harrison and his business, including keeping accurate records, training staff every three months, displaying signs on drug awareness and advertising the Challenge 25 policy.

Pc David Evans of Staffordshire Police said: "On November 29 at around 11.25pm two under-age volunteers entered the premises and purchased alcoholic drinks. At no point were they challenged to provide ID. We have serious concerns about the way this premises is being run."

There were nine arrests at the bar in the space of 12 months as well as reports of assaults, racist behaviour and drug readings.

A committee report said Club Lounge was the 'second worst performing premise for police incidents in the Cannock Chase District Council's area'.

Michael Pearce, on behalf of Mr Harrison, said: "The under-age sale of alcohol is not acceptable. Certain door staff have now been removed and others will be.

"If Mr Harrison does not get things in place he knows his licence is going to be taken off him."

Kicked in teeth over unit closure

JUST when we thought the future of Cannock Hospital was safe our own GPs kick us in the teeth.

The Cannock Chase Clinical Commissioning Group have been in charge for just over a year and have run up a deficit of over £9m.

The CCG have now decided that to save money they want to close the Minor Injuries Unit at Cannock Hospital. But so many people need it because there is a need.

Many people struggle to get to see a GP and have no alternative but to go to Minor Injuries or A&E. And we are constantly told to only use A&E in an emergency.

Many of our local GP practices are small and it is not possible for them to open seven days a week.The CCG says it will provide a cheaper alternative. Will it provide the same level of service? I have my doubts.

Why not move market to Hednesford?

I READ with interest your piece about Cannock market stallholders being 'up in arms' about the Friday/Saturday Bescot Promotions market (Chronicle, May 8).

I'd like to say to Bescot Promotions that if Cannock doesn't want you – come to Hednesford.

When I moved to Hednesford nearly 40 years ago there was a perfectly good market on Fridays and Saturdays selling everything from fruit and veg to toys. We even had a fresh fish stall.

Then the Co-Operative Society bought up the land the market traded on and we haven't seen one since.

So, bring your market stalls to Hednesford. There are plenty of places, the road next to the library for instance, since the library is only open on Saturday mornings, or the whole of the main road, aptly called Market Street, which is one-way and could surely be closed for just two days a week?

There's also the Market Street end of Eskrett Street or Cardigan Place, or even the big waste of space area on the corner opposite the new Anglesey Hall building.

I know we have Tesco – with a mainly half empty car park – and Aldi. But we have a range of other shops on a par with those in Cannock, though admittedly no High Street names.

We have a bike shop, a betting shop, a plethora of hairdressing shops. We have takeaways and restaurants and a chip shop, charity shops, newsagents, a wedding hire shop, estate agents, a bank and oh, so many others.

We do not however have an independent chemist which along with our post office was swallowed up by the Co-Op shortly before Tesco came to town. So please, Bescot Promotions. If you do have to move from Cannock please consider Hednesford. We do not have a market and our next nearest neighbour is Rugeley.

Thanks to all that helped after injury

ON behalf of my husband and myself, we wish to say a huge thank to the people who helped us.

We were out for a walk on April 26 with our dog when I injured my ankle.

We are so grateful to the lady who allowed my husband to call an ambulance and the strong men and cyclist who helped get me to where our car was.

Thank you to you all.

I am recovering at home and am glad there are people willing to help when someone is in distress.

A huge thank you.

Poundland staying open

I WANTED to correct information in a letter from O Woolley, Cannock (April 17). The Poundland store at the Linkway Retail Centre is a new store with new jobs. The Poundland store in Cannock town centre is staying open.

MIU used as so hard to see GP

I HOPE the 12-week "consultation" on the planned closure of Cannock Hospital's Minor Injuries Unit is a genuine attempt to find out the needs of the community, rather than a token gesture when the decision has already been made.

The Clinical Commissioning Groups say it is not just about saving money, and claim that 40 per cent of patients would have been better served going to see their GP. Really?

Patients are going to the minor injury unit because they cannot get an appointment to see their GP! Surely keeping the MIU open for the use of all Cannock people has to be more cost effective than every GP surgery staying open longer or employing more staff in order to cope with demand?

A&E departments in every hospital in the area are already stretched to breaking point, so we can't go there either.

Privatisation's loser in the UK taxpayer

DAVID Cameron's claim that the Royal Mail was a loss making company, and its privatisation justified, is simply not true. In my view, the privatisation is a disgrace and the loser is the UK taxpayer.

In October the government sold 60 per cent of the company in favour of priority investors such as Standard Life and Black Rock. Twelve priority investors sold part or all of their holdings, making a huge profit in the first few weeks of trading, and taxpayers have lost more than £1bn due to the low valuation.

Critics of the sale condemn the axing of 1,300 jobs and the hike in stamp prices as evidence of the folly of privatisation.

Guide Dogs cash raised

ON behalf of the Burntwood, Cannock and Lichfield branch of the Guide Dogs for the Blind Association I would like to say thank you to the staff for their co-operation and all the people who so kindly donated to our fundraising collection held at Tesco Express, Lichfield on April 30.

The total amount raised was £388.79. If anyone is interested in helping GDBA with fundraising call 01543 683937.

PAT WILLIAMS, chairman/collections secretary

A shining example

I'D like to express my gratitude to the wonderful miracle workers of Cannock Eye Hospital where I recently underwent cataract surgery. The NHS gets a bit of stick in the Press nowadays but these guys are a shining example of how good the service can be and the reason I can see straight to write this letter.

Veterans join in VE Day celebrations

WAR veterans joined in VE celebrations at a day centre for the elderly. They sang nostalgic songs, played table top games and reminisced at Sir Julian House in Bridgtown.

The event at the centre run by Age UK was held to mark the anniversary of Victory in Europe Day (VE) on May 8, 1945. Staff at the Walsall Road day centre dressed in 1940s-style aprons and hair nets while they decked the rooms in Union Flags and laid on lunch and a sing-a-long.

Second World War veteran Leslie Green, aged 85, of Lichfield Close, Great Wyrley was taking part. He was one of the first to sign up for activities at the centre's new day opportunities scheme and was at the forefront of the singing.

Sir Julian House's team supervisor Caron Rogers said: "It is quite a happy house and we like to laugh a lot."

Fostering under scrutiny

FOSTERING teams are hosting a series of roadshows and information evenings to highlight the urgent need for foster carers in Staffordshire.

'Reggie' the foster service's promotional bus will be making its way across the county, giving people the chance to meet the team and talk to existing foster carers about the work they do. Foster Care Fortnight, which runs from May 12 to 15, is the UK's annual awareness campaign to raise the profile of fostering.

This year in Staffordshire, the focus is on finding those families who can provide long term care which means supporting a child until they reach independence.

Children's services boss councillor Mike Lawrence said: "Right now in Staffordshire there are children of all ages who need long-term safe and secure homes. And we need local families who are willing to foster them.

"Foster carers play a vital role in providing loving homes for many of our children in care and we are always looking for more foster families to come forward, especially those interested in long-term fostering."

Roadshows will run in Market Square, Cannock, on Monday May 19 and in Brook Square, Rugeley on Friday, May 23.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done.

We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Wolverhampton and the surrounding area and Brian is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Duke backs memorial to historic truce game

A MEMORIAL backed by the Duke of Cambridge will be built in Staffordshire to mark 100 years since the historic Christmas Day truce.

It will commemorate the iconic moment soldiers dropped their weapons and played football in Flanders in 1914. A competition has been launched to find a design for the monument, which will be built at the National Memorial Arboretum in Alrewas.

The project is being backed by the Duke of Cambridge. Schools and football academies are being asked to come up with designs. The winner will be chosen by The Duke and Arsenal and England forward Theo Walcott and the memorial will be formally unveiled in December.

FA Chairman Greg Dyke said: "Having just been to visit the battlefields and memorial sites in northern France, I saw at first hand just how much a part football played in the First World War.

Generation

"It is only right and fitting the game comes together to pay tribute to those that made the ultimate sacrifice.

"By bringing the story of the Christmas Truce to life for a new generation, we can also remind how football can be a positive force in bringing people together – even at the worst of times."

A 'Football Remembers' education pack is set to be sent to more than 30,000 schools across the UK, including resources to help children learn about the truce with eye-witness accounts, photos, drawings and letters from soldiers, some of which have never been published before.

On Christmas Day 1914 German, British and French soldiers ventured into no man's land, where they played football and exchanged food and souvenirs.

First World War and Sports Minister, Helen Grant, said: "When both sides laid down their arms at Christmas and played football, they showed how sport can overcome even the biggest divide."

Poppy Appeal shop launch

Doris Grice opens the Royal British Legion shop with Sheila Dunning, Alison Bates, Chris Hitchcock, Jordon Burnett and Derrik Morton

A BRANCH of the Royal British Legion has opened a new shop to help with its fundraising efforts.

The Royal British Legion Poppy Shop, which sells T-shirts, badges and bracelets, opened at an empty unit within Cannock Shopping Centre. Cannock Chase Council chairman Doris Grice cut the ribbon to open the store.

It will be open on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 10.30am to 2pm.

Derrik Morton, Staffordshire's vice chairman for the Royal British Legion, and Alison Bates, local area commercial fundraiser, also turned up to the store opening.

Sheila Dunning, secretary and honorary poppy and remembrance organiser for the Cannock branch of the Royal British Legion, said: "We hope it will help us raise more funds."

Business booming for family firm

Andy Earl, aged 53, of Ace Line Plant in Rugeley, with wife Clare, 43 and son Mike, 28

A FAMILY-owned firm is getting a shot in the arm from renewed growth in the construction industry.

Owned by founder Andy Earl, Ace Line Plant hires out JCB equipment to builders based in a 20 mile radius of its Levels Trading Estate premises.

Andy said: "Business is booming at the moment, mostly due to local builders hiring diggers." The firm splashed out £100,000 on six mini-excavators from JCB adding to its existing fleet of 15 JCB machines, while £300,000 was spent on moving the business from its old converted shop premises to a purpose-built unit in Brick Kiln Way.

Another £40,000 has been invested in installing solar panels. The company now employs six people and Andy is advertising for a seventh because of its surge in growth.

JCB profits drop by £50m

DIGGER company JCB has revealed its profits were down more than £50 million on the previous year – but was still one of the highest figures in the firm's history.

Profit for 2013 was £313 million, down on 2012's record-breaking £365 million, but still the third strongest figure in JCB's 68-year lifetime.

Sales were virtually flat at £2.68 billion, as JCB sold 66,227 machines around the world – 3,000 fewer than the year before.

But JCB was bullish about prospects for the 2014 and revealed that the UK was its fastest growing market with sales up 50 per cent so far this year.

Chairman Lord Bamford said: "The global market for construction equipment was more challenging throughout 2013 but I am delighted that, despite difficult market conditions, JCB delivered a strong performance and achieved the third highest profit in its history."

JCB is pressing ahead with a £150m plan to expand operations in Staffordshire, creating 2,500 more jobs by 2018, with work due to start on a new 350,000 sq ft plant for JCB Cab Systems in Uttoxeter. A new factory will also be built in Cheadle, while the cab making plant at Rugeley will move to a new factory around 15 miles away.

Roofing business creating a storm

A CANNOCK firm has more than doubled its turnover after investing on its workforce, health and safety equipment and a fleet of new vans.

A commitment to customer service and an efficient after-sales service has also contributed to the success of Storm Industrial Roofing Ltd. The firm, in Littleton Drive, Huntington, has secured a string of contracts with clients in the automotive, aerospace and pharmaceutical sectors, creating 18 jobs to take the number to more than 30. It has also provided the ideal platform for relocation to a larger premises at STORM House, offering greater storage space, purpose-built offices and a dedicated conference room.

Nick Hughes, who runs the business with Stephen Farr-Smith, said: "Our sector has suffered from reports of poor service and has been seen as an industry stuck in its ways, so we decided to do something to change perceptions."

Benefits cheat is jailed

A 62-year-old Rugeley man has been jailed for six months after cheating taxpayers out of more than £18,000.

Gerald Jones, of Catkin Walk, pleaded guilty to not telling the council of a change in circumstances when he appeared before the judge at Stafford Crown Court on May 1.

The offences involved £16,145.10 of housing benefit and £2,321.94 of council tax benefit between May 2009 and July 2013. Cannock Chase Council discovered that Jones was in receipt of a pension he had not declared.

Legislation

In sentencing Recorder Mr Timothy Raggatt QC said the defendant had disregarded legislation over a long period of time and this had to be marked by a custodial sentence.

Cannock Chase Council uncovered more than £500,000 of fraudulent claims in the last financial year. Benefit services manager Dave Willmore said: "We are determined to prevent people cheating taxpayers out of money they are not entitled to.

"It is unfair on those who do pay their dues – and if you do cheat the system you should expect to be caught."

He added: "But we also want to make sure those entitled to benefits get them."

Nightmare averted for family's dream holiday

A FAMILY forked out thousands of pounds for their five-star luxury holiday in Turkey. But their dream holiday almost became a nightmare.

The family-of-five discovered they had been left without hotel accommodation – less than 24 hours before they were due to fly out.

Gail Edwards, her partner Pat and four children, paid £4,000 to stay at the Sherwood Breeze hotel in Antalya.

Only hours before jetting off the family found out on Tripadvisor that the five-star hotel was undergoing extensive refurbishment work and they were forced to change hotels.

Mother Gail Edwards from Heath Hayes who has had her holiday to Turkey changed because of a problem with the hotel. Gail is pictured with her children Jake Edwards, Tommy Edwards, Finlay Cooke and Shannon Cooke

Triggered

Mrs Edwards, aged 37, who works as a personal assistant, said: "Pat and I decided to go on holiday with the kids because we needed to get away after a tough year.

"Last month I looked on Tripadvisor to see what people had said about the hotel and there were lots of comments from people saying it was undergoing a refurbishment.

"That triggered alarm bells for me and I visited the Co-Op travel agents in Heath Hayes to see if we could get alternative accommodation.

"I was reassured by the manager that the hotel would be ready on time but received a call telling me that it wouldn't and then there was a mad rush to get another hotel sorted out."

Mrs Edwards, of Hednesford Road, Cannock, booked the hotel because it caters for her eight-year-old daughter Shannon who suffers from Coeliac disease, meaning she has to stick to a strict gluten-free diet.

The family was placed in an alternative hotel, which does not have the same amenities for her 14-year-old twins, Jake and Tommy and her nine-year-old son Finlay. She said: "We had no notification there was going to be a refurb and only found out from looking at Tripadvisor."

Co-Operative Travel is run as a joint venture between the Thomas Cook Group, The Co-Operative Group and Midlands Co-Operative Society.

Thomas Cook spokesman Sarah Anderson said: "In rare instances it sometimes becomes necessary to offer alternative accommodation due to circumstances beyond our control.

"In this particular case, renovation work being carried out by our hotel partner unfortunately overran its completion date.

"As soon as we were informed of this, we contacted all customers due to travel up to May 9 to offer an alternative hotel of a higher standard."

Mini-market fundraiser

A FUNDRAISING mini-market takes place at Great Wyrley Wesley Methodist Church, in Walsall Road, this weekend.

Attractions at Saturday's event, May 17, include a raffle, bric-a-brac, tombola, groceries, cakes and local crafts. There will also be a farm fresh fruit and vegetable stall and refreshments will be served including tea/coffee and bacon sandwiches.

It takes place from 10.30am to noon. Admission is free and proceeds will go to church funds.

Couple tell of being duped by fraudster

A RETIRED couple who were swindled out of tens of thousands of pounds by a crooked businessman have spoken of the distress he had caused them.

Financial adviser Mark Lewis, of Oakdene Close, Hednesford, admitted at Stafford crown court conning a string of victims out of almost £500,000 at including £60,000 from grandparents-of-six Jeffrey and Josephine Coupe.

Mr Coupe, aged 72, said Lewis had been working for a company which installed solar panels on the roof of the couple's home in 2010 but had kept in touch with them for years after the job was done.

He claimed Lewis later offered them the opportunity to invest in his own solar panel company – compare-solar.com, promising a high financial return, but their money disappeared with the 50-year-old who fled with their savings.

Financial adviser Mark Lewis

Efficient

Several payments were made to Lewis by the couple throughout 2012.

Mr Coupe, of Rugby, Warwickshire, said: "We had solar panels put on our roof in 2010.

"He was a member of the team organising it and was making sure all the bits and pieces came. He was very efficient.

"He came back a couple of months later and would regularly ring up and be friendly, saying he was on his way to see clients.

"In 2012 he came to us with an offer. He wanted money to invest in the purchase of electrical components for his solar panel firm.

"He said he would give our money back and 30 per cent extra. He took a great deal of money from us.

"We probably should have questioned him but didn't. We felt that he was making the right noises and was friendly and personable.

"He was very skilled. When we approached him and said it was time to pay up he disappeared and we contacted the police.

"There was a lot of distress in the family. We trusted him and he betrayed us. I feel sorry for the others who it happened to."

Lewis pleaded guilty to three counts of fraud in relation to the Coupes, spanning from February to August 2012.

He admitted a total of 16 charges of fraud relating to eight victims, between May 2008 and September 2012. He is due to be sentenced on May 28.

Hospice boost is delivered by APC Overnight

A CHILDREN'S hospice has been backed by one of Cannock's biggest-growing businesses.

APC Overnight has donated arts and crafts materials to Acorns Children's Hospice in Walsall.

Delivery firm staff donated craft items, puzzles and educational workbooks to provide fun activities for the children and families cared supported by the charity's Hospice at Home service.

Acorns are currently supporting 26 families in the local community, each of whom will receive some of the materials donated by APC Overnight staff.

Tara Barnes, head of sales and marketing at APC Overnight, said: "It was great to see so many of our staff show their generosity over the Easter period and we will certainly continue to support the great work of Acorns' Hospice at Home scheme at every opportunity."

Charlotte Anson of Acorns, said: "Donations, both cash and gifts, are vital in enabling us to run our services.

"On behalf of the children, families and staff at Acorns, I'd like to say a thank you to APC Overnight for providing us with such wonderful support."

Camilla praises medics at £138m centre launch

THE Duchess of Cornwall hailed the 'close ties' between the military and local communities as she officially opened a new military training centre.

Last Thursday's unveiling of the £138 million medical facility at Whittington Barracks in Lichfield marked the culmination of six years of building work.

Around 1,400 military and civilian personnel will be based at the site along with 7,000 students a year. The first students arrived in March this year to start medical training in the newly formed Defence College of Healthcare Education and Training.

The Duchess said: "It is wonderful that so many from the local community are here to celebrate today.

"It shows the close ties between the medical services and the communities amongst which they live and work."

Camilla talks to Chief Petty Officer Dean Bateman from Coventry

Significant

"It is so heartening that the good people of Staffordshire have recognised the significant role that those who serve in Her Majesty's Armed Forces play at home and abroad.

"It is only with the strong support of the public that organisations like the Defence Medical Services are able to operate effectively, knowing that what they do is so valued by those whom they serve."

Up to 900 people gathered to see Her Royal Highness unveil the plaque to mark the training centre opening.

Dressed in green, Camilla arrived by helicopter and chatted to the crowd including schoolchildren from Whittington Primary, Whittington Pre-School, scouts, guides and sea cadets.

The Duchess, who cut a cake with a sword, said: "It gives me enormous pleasure to be with you all here today at the Defence Medical Services Whittington, for the dedication of this new, state-of-the-art, medical training facility, which, I know, so many have worked so hard to bring to fruition over the last few years.

"I have seen for myself how tirelessly those in all three medical services strive to achieve the highest possible standards, and I am certain that with the training available here, our forces will continue to receive the very best medical support."

Emily Brown, from Whittington Primary in Lichfield, was one of those who handed over a bouquet of flowers to the Duchess. The 10-year-old said: "I was nervous and excited."

Dignitaries including Police & Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis and Lichfield MP Michael Fabricant were also on hand to greet Camilla.

The Duchess also paid a visit to a stand manned by the Armed Forces charity SSAFA – which supports injured personnel and their families.

Staffordshire County secretary George Street said: "I said 'welcome to the SSAFA marquee' and her comment very simply was 'are SSAFA doing their usual brilliant work'.. I said 'definitely'."

Smartly-dressed Scouts in 1914 just before they all signed up

Scouting footballers who joined up to fight for their King and Country

IT is a photograph that thousands of young men have posed for over the years.

Preparing for a new football season members of the Bilston Scouts Old Boys 1913-14 gathered for a team photograph.

But a little over a year later every member of the group had bravely answered their country's call for duty in the First World War.

Like so many of their era, the boys, most of whom were between the ages of 17 and 19, had quickly become men.

Twelve members of the 1st Bilston Scout group signed up for the Great War on the same day in September 1914. Two did not return home.

The photographs feature Lance Corporal William Harpin and Corporal Arthur Flavell, 23, who were both killed in action in France.

Another of those pictured is believed to be W T Morgan, who went on to become a lieutenant-colonel, while others are thought to include Jack Turton, Wilf Jay, H Steward and a Mr Darby. Sadly others captured in the photograph remain unknown, their identities lost over the years.

MEMORY LANE
by Peter Madeley

The men were paid tribute to at a St George's Day service in the Bilston Town Hall.

Denis Evans is treasurer of the 1st Bilston Scout Group – which is thought to be the oldest in the world having been founded in 1908, the same year Robert Baden-Powell published his book Scouting for Boys.

He said the ceremony was a fitting tribute to a fine body of men.

"It puts it all into perspective when you look at the pictures," said the 71-year-old, who was made an MBE for his services to the Scouting movement. They were all youngsters getting ready for the football season and enjoying their time as Scouts. Then within a short time they are preparing for war.

"They didn't know what they were getting into. They felt it was their duty to join up. They were all brave. They just thought it was the right thing to do.

"We wanted to pay tribute to the group and pay our respects to all scouts who were lost during the war. "

The ceremony featured a performance of the Last Post, played on the bugle by Karen Mason, great-niece of William Harpin.

The Bilston-born lance corporal, served with the 3rd (The King's Own) Hussars and was killed in action in France in October 1915.

Mrs Mason, who lives in Bilston, said she had not known her great-uncle had been a Scout until she was contacted by Mr Evans.

"We knew he was buried in France, but part of the family tree had got lost over the years," she said.

"My granddad had a number of brothers and two of them were killed in the war, but we didn't realise William had died so early. To see that he hadn't been forgotten was wonderful."

The 1st Bilston group had been given the photograph clipped from a newspaper of the day showing the 12 boys who joined up at the outbreak of the war when celebrating its 100th birthday in 2008.

Mr Evans managed to track William Harpin down to a home address in Great Bridge Road, Bilston. Through that he was able to trace relatives. Mr Evans also discovered that Mr Harpin had worked for Joseph Sankey, Bilston.

He was 18 when he died having served for up to 18 month. It is known that many teenagers gave false ages in their enthusiasm to sign up.

Cpl Flavell proved even more of a challenge since the letter on the roll call initially appeared to spell the surname as Havell. But once that confusion had been resolved he was finally found to have lived in Coseley. Mr Evans continued: "It took a lot of work but was well worth all the effort."

Regimental mascot in the picture

DRAMATIC images of the Staffordshire Regiment at war with their prized mascot have been captured by a former art teacher.

Anthony Pitt, who trained at the Royal Academy in London, was inspired to create a series of paintings of the regiment – with the mascot Watchman V featuring prominently – after seeing photographs of the Staffordshire bull terrier.

The 75-year-old from Darlaston said: "I saw a photograph of Watchman V and this really caught my eye.

"Two of the paintings are of the Staffordshire Regiment at war with Watchman charging and another of him in the forefront."

The former teacher at Wards Bridge School, in Wednesfield, has contacted the Staffordshire Regiment Museum to see if they are interested in displaying the pictures.

He said: "I have painted from a young age and was able to get a place at the Royal Academy in London where I had several paintings exhibited and won a medal. After retiring all I do is paint."

The mascot tradition in the Regiments of Staffordshire stretches back to the 19th century. Watchman V took over as mascot of 3rd Battalion the Mercian Regiment in October 2010 but was promoted to Lance Corporal in September 2011.

Tories pledge to fight hard as elections loom

THE Liberal Democrats are fielding candidates for little more than a quarter of seats on six councils in next week's local elections.

The party has candidates in just 10 out of 20 wards in Wolverhampton, four each in Dudley and Sandwell, eight in Walsall, six in Cannock Chase and none in Wyre Forest.

Meanwhile the Tories have also failed to find candidates for two wards, leaving one of them a two-horse race between Labour and Ukip at the May 22 ballot.

The Tories are not putting a candidate up in Sandwell's West Bromwich Central nor in the Brereton & Ravenhill ward of Cannock Chase District.

Paul Snape, opposition Conservative leader on Cannock Chase Council, said: "In 2012 we came last in the ward so our Rugeley branch decided to concentrate resources on other wards.

"There were discussions with a candidate but it did not come to fruition before the closing date. We're going to fight hard in every other seat."

The Lib Dems are fighting just six out of 13 seats in Cannock Chase, despite having been the largest party on the council four years ago.

In Cannock Chase, Linda Whitehouse, who defected to Ukip from the Tories, is standing in Brereton and Ravenhill where there is no Conservative opponent.

Former Lib Dem Michael Grocott, who sits as an independent, will try to hold on in Western Springs. Labour has been in charge since 2012 with 24 councillors. Group leader George Adamson is up for election.

Concert dedicated to tragic teen's memory

Rodgers & Hammerstein Songbook cast members Mark Morgan and Beth Humphreys

STARS of a show taking place in Cannock are dedicating it to a teenaged boy who died of an asthma attack.

The Rodgers & Hammerstein Songbook takes place at the Prince of Wales Centre in Church Street on Friday, June 6 from 7.30pm.

It will feature hits from the musicals such as The King and I, Oklahoma!, Carousel, South Pacific and The Sound of Music. The seven-strong cast includes four West End leads and three internationally respected opera singers.

They will perform in memory of 16-year-old James Wright, a Chase Academy student who died last February, and in aid of Asthma UK

James was diagnosed with asthma at the age of two. He missed almost two years of schooling due to frequent stays in hospital. but, after passing his GCSEs, had begun an electrical engineering apprenticeship.

His mother Caroline said: "The night of James's fatal asthma attack will stay with his friends and family forever.

"He was only 16. James was a caring, loving and fun personality."

Club onto a winner with guest Joan

CANNOCK WI

THE last meeting group gathering was the AGM and the club welcomed one new member.

Chairman Val Beale introduced the new committee and thanked those who had served over the last year. She said she had enjoyed her first year in office.

Treasurer Gillian Gethin, reported a healthy bank balance and secretary Sue Evans gave an account of past business and activities.

Speaker for the evening was Joan Burton who gave a fascinating insight into her interest in entering competitions.

Her talk was called 'Congratulations, you have won'. Joan has been entering competitions for many years and is a very successful prize winner, including more than 20 holidays abroad and various household items.

She brought with her a selection of purchases which had competition entries on them and said that she sends off about three entries per day.

Many of her 'wins' are given away to family or friends and she has also raised large amounts of money by donating some of her 'wins' to charities.

Joan gave tips for those who might be interested in 'having a go' and the vote of thanks was given by Pat Powell.

Cannock WI meets at 7.30pm on the third Tuesday of each month at St Luke's School, New Penkridge Road, Cannock.

Visitors and new members are always welcome to attend.

LADIES PROBUS

THE 27th AGM of the Cannock Chase club was held at the Barns restaurant.

Chairman Pat Elwell welcomed members. Winifrede Haynes said Grace. The members then enjoyed an excellent luncheon.

After the Loyal Toast the club's business matters were attended to.

Mrs Elwell thanked all the committee members for their work and support during her year of office. She made a special presentation, of a basket of flowers, to June Evans who was now retiring from the committee having served six years as membership secretary. Eileen Cryer presented Mrs Elwell with a beautiful flower arrangement and thanked her for her year of service as club chairman.

Mrs Elwell presented Pat Stanley with the chairman's badge of office. Mrs Stanley thanked everyone for inviting her to be their chairman and said it was an honour.

She thanked David and the staff of the Barns for their very good services over the past year and a donation was made from the club members.

Ladies enjoy thanksgiving service

GREAT WYRLEY TG

LADIES of the guild travelled to Oxford for the celebration of the TG 85 years thanksgiving service.

They arrived in good time for lunch and retail therapy, before making their way to the beautiful Christ Church Cathedral.

The service began with a procession of all The Federation Banners of attending guilds and key members of the TG. The South Staffs Federation banner was carried by Great Wyrley vice chairman Pam Ball. The South Staffs choir sang and 'I Am A Small Part of the World', the TG's adopted anthem, ended with all ladies holding hands.

Pauline Benton and Diana Gunn duetted for 'The Lord Bless and Keep You' and the service ended with a blessing from Cannon Edmund Newey.

Ellie's fundraising feat in aid of cancer charity

More than 40 people took part in the charity walk for Cancer Research UK, organised by Ellie Goddard-Hyden

A SCHOOLGIRL has raised hundreds of pounds for charity in memory of her grandparents.

Ellie Goddard-Hyden, aged 11, organised a charity walk in aid of Cancer Research UK after losing her grandfather to the disease five years ago and her grandmother two years ago.

More than 40 people took part in the walk from The Beacon Way pub in Little Bloxwich to Hawkins Colliery Sports Club in Cheslyn Hay. Ellie's mother, Zoe Goddard-Taylor, said she was 'overwhelmed' by the number of people who turned out. She said: "Zoe was really close to both of her grandparents and it really upset her when we lost her granddad to bowel cancer and then her nan to lung cancer.

Proud

"She decided she wanted to raise money for other people who have been faced with the disease and we held a coffee morning and charity car wash last year.

"But Ellie wanted to do something bigger and better and came up with the idea for a charity walk. We had 44 friends and family take part and we managed to raise £214. I am very proud of her."

Mrs Goddard-Taylor is now organising a family fun day at Featherstone Community Centre in Baneberry Drive on August 17. It will feature a bouncy castle, a rodeo bull, face painting, stalls and a disco from noon.

Ellie, who attends Cheslyn Hay Sport & Community High School, said: "This is something I have wanted to do for some time because I was really close to my grandparents.

"I am really excited about the fun day and hope we will raise a lot of money."

Asian food classes are on the move

AN Indian cookery school which set up last year has moved to a bigger base to meet growing demand.

iCookIndian launched last October and originally ran classes from Rodbaston College, but has now moved to Stafford Sports College.

The family business has made the move to cater for more students in courses which aim to educate foodies in authentic Indian cuisine.

Business founder and course leader Amarpal Harrar, who previously worked in the pharmaceutical industry, said: "When we launched the school last October we had no idea that things would take off so quickly and we've been amazed by the response."

Students cook an Indian meal for two from scratch under guidance, learn about the heritage of the dishes they cook and about the spices and other ingredients they use. They also get to take home the food they have cooked.

Father-of-three Mr Harrar, aged 60, added: "We're delighted with the new facilities at Stafford Sports College as it gives us chance to expand.".

Half-day classes cost £65 and full day classes cost £95, including ingredients.

Market traders set out stall for national initiative

PENKRIDGE Market is taking part in the national 2014 Love Your Local Market campaign.

The campaign, led by the National Association of British Market Authorities (NABMA), will run for a fortnight up until May 28.

Penkridge will be joining more than 700 markets across the country taking part in the initiative.

New traders will be offered 'incentivised pitches' to boost economic activity.

The market will be leasing stalls to local entrepreneurs during the two weeks at a reduced rate of £10 per stall – to allow them to 'try out' business ideas and attract more people to visit the area.

Penkridge Market manager Matt Williams said: "We know how tough it is to set up a business, so a market stall is a great way to try out ideas and get customers' feedback without it costing very much.

"The market attracts up to 5,000 people from around the region every market day, so it's a great place to start a new business."

The campaign has the support of the government and markets industry.

The aim is to attract new traders and to highlight the importance markets play in the heart of their local community – not only for retail but as a valuable community asset, providing the focal point of many town centres.

It started in 2012, amid fears about the sustainability of the nation's high streets.

Love Your Local Market participants have staged more than 4,000 events over the last two years.

National Association of British Market Authorities chief executive Graham Wilson OBE said: "Love Your Local Market is the biggest market event in a generation. It gives people the chance of a new career and demonstrates how important the market is to the local community.

"With the financial backing of the government and our headline sponsor HMY Radfords we intend to make Love Your Local Market 2014 the biggest and best market campaign the UK has ever seen."

Women taking part in exercise classes in the new studio at Wolgarston School

Classroom now used for exercise

A SCHOOL classroom has been converted into a new exercise studio and will be shared with its neighbouring leisure centre.

The facility at Wolgarston High School will be used by Penkridge Leisure Centre.

More than £20,000 has been invested in the project, with the refurbishment including work on external lighting, new multi-sports specific flooring, mirrors, air conditioning, a stereo system and blacked out windows.

During school hours, usage will be shared. However it will be primarily used by the leisure centre during evenings and at weekends.

The leisure centre has already extended its exercise class programme, introducing new classes which started last week including spinning, aqua zumba and circuits.

South Staffs Councillor Mary Bond said: "This is a fantastic addition to Penkridge Leisure Centre's facilities."

Charity in launch of playgroup

A NEW playgroup set up by a charity will launch in Penkridge tomorrow (Friday).

Sunshine and Rainbows Stay and Play sessions will take place at Penkridge Methodist Church Hall, Clay Street. They have been set up by Gail Routledge from A Child of Mine.

She founded the charity after her son Lewis died from a rare childhood cancer when he was two in July 2010. He was diagnosed with neuroblastoma, a highly aggressive cancer, at the age of eight months.

The charity provides support to families who have lost a child at any age and under any circumstances.

The playgroup runs from 11am onwards. The second one will be on June 13.

Those affected by the death of a baby or child who have other children are welcome to attend free of charge.

Animal zone volunteers call

VOLUNTEERS are being sought to work in the Animal Zone at Rodbaston Campus of South Staffordshire College.

The opportunity is open to anyone aged 18 and over who must have their own transport, be available weekends and school holidays and undergo a CRB check.

Putting victims first is a priority

CRIME victims and witnesses in Cannock, Rugeley and Burntwood are being asked to help shape a radical rethink of services by Police & Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis.

Mr Ellis has set out a clear vision to put the needs of victims and witnesses first.

Consultation has been launched and online survey responses should be submitted by May 30. Members of the public should give their views at http://goo.gl/k0E2gU

For a paper copy of the survey email heather.collier@staffordshire.gov.uk

All responses will contribute to an evidence base of research which will enable Mr Ellis to commission services and provide a relevant, high level of service to victims and witnesses.

He said: "Putting the victim first in every aspect of what is done is at the heart of our strategy and I'm confident the improvements will result in better, more sensitive and more tailored services."

'Super' specials complete improved training regime

THE first batch of 'super' Special Constables in Staffordshire have completed their improved training regime.

Report by Rob Golledge

Police & Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis has drawn up plans to bolster the force's special division which is made up of a band of policing volunteers giving them the same powers as regular officers with advanced training and better equipment.

They are also being given a bigger remit and there will be more opportunities for career progression.

Some specials are also, for the first time, being trained in more specialist roles which will see them get involved in wildlife policing and licensing among other issues. Mr Ellis, deputy commissioner Sue Arnold and Assistant Chief Constable Bernie O'Reilly presented accreditation certificates to 29 specials who have just completed the new training programme.

Recipients included nine community specials, who are embedded in neighbourhood policing teams, plus specials who work on licensing teams in areas including Cannock and Lichfield.

A special detective, integrated offender management special, wildlife and rural crime specials and specials who have been trained with Central Motorways Policing Group were also honoured.

Mr Ellis said specials played a crucial part in supporting their full-time colleagues.

He said: "The Chief Constable and his team have done a tremendous job developing the plans, including new 'very local' community specials, and I believe it puts Staffordshire's Special Constabulary in a brilliant and exciting position for the future."

Chief Constable Mike Cunningham said: "Those who give their time to be members of the Staffordshire Police Special Constabulary are incredible people who play a key role in keeping our communities safe.

"Special Constables are police officers, they have the same powers, and they work alongside regular police officers to tackle crime and support our communities."

There are currently more than 400 Specials in Staffordshire. For more details on joining, visit www.StaffsSpecials.org

£500 donation to help Cadets

A FOOD-packaging equipment company became the latest business to sponsor Staffordshire Police Cadets – after being impressed by the force's quick response to a burglary.

After suffering a theft, Reiser UK was so impressed by the police reaction that it donated £500 to the Cadets scheme.

Thieves made off with a £20,000 shrink-wrap machine belonging to the Milton Keynes-based business from a company in Four Ashes in November. But the machine, which had been leased, was recovered and returned to Reiser by Pc Carl Paton from South Staffordshire Local Policing Team after a warrant was executed in Darlaston.

The donation will help fund the ongoing roll-out of the Cadets programme across Staffordshire following the launch of successful units in Stafford and Cannock,.

Further patrons and sponsors are needed to fund the Cadets service. Visit www.staffordshire-pcc.gov.uk/police-cadets

Guitar great reveals the meaning of folk

Martin Simpson
Newhampton Arts Centre, Wolverhampton

FOR all of those who have been searching for that elusive and definitive answer to the great question in life, what is folk music? Martin Simpson can put you out of your misery. According to him, folk music is any music accompanied by a raffle, just one of his many musings.

Showing his absolute mastery of guitar and banjo, Simpson has been plucking the strings since he was a teenager and has thoroughly earned his status as one of the legends of the folk world. He opened with The Pines, a spine-melting slide guitar number which segued into Hold On, a soft ballad written by Tom Waits.

You get the full package with Simpson. Not only do you have the fantastic, precise and perfectly executed songs but you also get the background, inspirations to the songs and the experiences of Simpson behind them. The 15 years he spent working and exploring the US had a massive influence on him and allowed him to pick up some incredible tunes which he either interprets using his own distinctive style, or he plays as they were created.

The next opportunity to see him in the Midlands is at Shrewsbury Folk Festival in August.

Danny Farragher

Musical future in safe hands

Granny's Attic
Newhampton Folk Club

IF the young Midlands folk trio of Lewis Wood, George Sansome and Cohen Braithwaite-Kilcoyne, collectively known as Granny's Attic, are the future of British folk music then you can rest assured it's in good hands.

The three lads, who are still in education, have a talent and maturity on stage way beyond their years and put on a refreshing, enthusiastic show which was infectious and full of verve.

On their first visit to the city they filled the upper room of the Newhampton Inn in Whitmore Reans, which hosts Newhampton Folk Club, with sounds both solidly traditional and injected with freshness by their combined skills, limitless enthusiasm and obvious enjoyment.

They produced a traditional night of folk music. Every song and tune they knocked out, was given new life, while their own tunes sounded like they had been around for ever.

Sylvie Guillem in choreographer Mat Ek's Bye, part of triple bill 6000 Miles Away

Strength and elegance are combined by dazzling dancer

6000 Miles Away, Sylvie Guillem, Birmingham Hippodrome

PERFORMANCES by Sylvie Guillem, former toast of the Paris Opera Ballet and the Royal Ballet, were highlights of Birmingham's international dance festival.

6000 Miles Away featured three short contemporary dance works. The first, 27'52" by Czech choreographer Jiri Kylian featured female and male dancer Aurelie Cayla and Lukas Timulak. Both were barechested as they overcame robotic ticks to combine in fluid moves to Dirk Haubrich's menacing soundtrack of backwards speech and insectoid chirps.

Guillem and partner Massimo Murru teasingly were first glimpsed between blackouts in William Forsythe's Rearray. Dancing in T-shirts and slacks, the pair deconstructed classical ballet moves yet created beauty, despite David Morrow's cacophonous musical din.

Guillem showed her combination of a gymnast's sinewy strength and a great ballerina's sublime elegance, in Mats Ek's Bye. Danced to a Beethoven piano sonata, she engaged in perfect sync with her own projected image. She expressed every emotion in a dazzling performance.

Good golly Miss Dolly on way to warm up for Glastonbury

Wild boys from the Black Country

SEVERAL boys from the Black Country will make their debut alongside professional dancers when Matthew Bourne's New Adventures stage Lord Of The Flies at Birmingham Hippodrome.

The dance version of William Golding's novel about boys turning savage continues to Saturday. It should be a highlight of the city's dance festival.

Breakin' Convention puts the hip hop in Hippodrome on Tuesday and Wednesday, and the theatre hosts Sidi Larbi Cherkaoui's tango-inspired Milonga on May 23 and 24.

Cirque du Soleil bring spectacular acrobatic show Dralion to the LG Arena, from May 22 to 25 for six performances.

Mel and Marc to be Jools' guests

FORMER Spice Girl Mel C and ex-Soft Cell singer Marc Almond will be Jools Holland's guests when the boogie pianist and broadcaster brings his Rhythm & Blues Orchestra to Wolverhampton Civic Hall on Wednesday, May 21.

The band features soul singers Ruby Turner from Handsworth and Louise Marshall plus brass section featuring trombonists Winston Rollins from Birmingham and reggae legend Rico Rodriquez MBE. Support from American singer-songwriter Galia Arad.

Tickets from £35.75. Call 0870 320 7000 or visit boxoffice@wolvescivic.co.uk

EofE set for pop stardom

DUDLEY band EofE are on the brink of the big time supporting supergroup McBusted on their UK tour. They have performed in front of 15,000 McFly and Busted fans at the LG Arena and are repeating the feat on Saturday night and again on May 27.

Singer Tom Harris, 17, from Netherton, a former Hillcrest Community College pupil, said: "To play these venues even a few months ago seemed like a distant dream, now we're playing to thousands and thousands of people."

The band started three years ago when Tom met guitarist Dan Bremner, 19, from Gornal. They were joined by Gornal bassist Luke Bradley, 18, and drummer Nicky Waters, 25, from Northumberland.

Their track Kiss Me Like You Mean It is free to download at www.eofe.com/freebies/

COUNTRY singing star and movie actress Dolly Parton is coming to Birmingham's LG Arena next month as she prepares to top the bill at this summer's Glastonbury Festival.

Not so much a celebrity as a force of nature, this month the 68-year-old American icon who has sold 100 million records releases her latest studio album Blue Smoke featuring ten new songs and two covers, Bob Dylan's Don't Think Twice and Bon Jovi's Lay Your Hands On Me.

It's her 42nd studio album and marks 47 years since her debut, Hello I'm Dolly in 1967.

The fourth of 12 children from a poor farming family in the Tennessee mountains, Dolly first sang at the famous Grand Ole Opry venue aged 13 and found fame in the US on television in The Porter Wagoner Show.

Her pure as mountain spring water voice and glamorous image had a massive impact, especially as she showed her feisty side with songs such as Dumb Blonde.

During the 1970s she went solo, wrote and recorded the massive hit I Will Always Love You, a tribute to Porter Wagoner, and also had success with Coat Of Many Colors, Jolene, Love Is Like A Butterfly, The Bargain Store, Here You Come Again, 9 To 5, and Islands In The Stream with Kenny Rogers.

NEC date — Dolly Parton

Dolly is in concert at the LG on Sunday, June 22, and tickets start from £55.70.

Meanwhile, Dolly Parton's wayward goddaughter Miley Cyrus will be ready to shock with her twerking antics at the NIA Arena on Friday, while X Factor winners Little Mix play the LG Arena.

Tonight Prince & 3rdEyeGirl are at LG, returning to the same venue on Monday. In between McBusted play the LG Saturday and Nine Inch Nails on Sunday.

Dial-a-death thriller staged at the Rep

CHRISTOPHER Timothy stars in classic thriller Dial M For Murder, which was made into a memorable movie by Alfred Hitchcock, at Birmingham Rep until Saturday. In Lucy Bailey's version, the Grace Kelly role of potential victim is played by Kelly Hotten.

Power ballad musical Rock Of Ages is at Birmingham New Alexandra Theatre to Saturday and biographical rock 'n' roll musical Buddy is at Wolverhampton Grand from Monday to Saturday.

Highlights next week include an acclaimed stage version of Joseph Heller's novel about the insanity of war, Catch-22, presented by Northern Stage at Birmingham Rep from Tuesday to Saturday.

No 'do re' but lots of me from Julie

THE star of The Sound of Music and Mary Poppins will appear in An Evening with Julie Andrews at Birmingham NIA on Saturday, May 24.

Oscar-winner Dame Julie marks 65 years in show business and looks back at her career on Broadway and in Hollywood and will be taking questions from the audience. As her singing voice has been limited since a throat operation in the 1990s, the venue says 78-year-old's show on her return home to England is a speaking engagement. For many the presence of the Disney legend will be enough.

Dame Judi Dench

Bob Larbey - A Tribute (BBC2, 8pm)

TV comedy is littered with writing partnerships, with Bob Larbey and John Esmonde one of Britain's best. They met at school and their breakthrough project was set in a classroom – that of teacher John Alderton in Please Sir! They hit the big time in 1975 when the first series of The Good Life aired. Hits such as Ever Decreasing Circles and Brush Strokes followed, while Larbey branched out on his own to create the Judi Dench vehicles A Fine Romance and As Time Goes By. Esmonde died in 2008, while Larbey passed away in March this year. This documentary pays tribute to their work together, but also to Larbey's output as a 'solo artist'.

7.15 Longmire. Walt and Vic try to untangle a complex web of passion to find out who put a rodeo sponsor in a coma and stole one of his paintings. The prime suspect is a rider who recently had his funding cut amid accusations he was using a cattle prod to agitate the horses. But who was having an affair with the victim? And was the artwork worthless – or priceless? Guest starring Stacy Haiduk (The Young and the Restless).

8.05 NCIS. The body of a Navy lieutenant is discovered during a city-wide power cut – and because Jethro and the team are unable to use their modern electronic equipment, they have to solve the case the old-fashioned way, and it soon becomes apparent that national security could be at stake. Drama, starring Mark Harmon, David McCallum, Cote de Pablo, Michael Weatherly and Pauley Perrette. (R)

9.00 NCIS. The agents investigate a government organisation dedicated to child prodigies while researching the death of a marine whose body appeared in the middle of a field disguised as a scarecrow, and realise a 12-year-old could be the killer's next target. Mark Harmon, David McCallum, Cote de Pablo, Michael Weatherly and Pauley Perrette star. (R)

Dylan Thomas: A Poet in New York
(BBC2, 9pm)
October 27, 2014 marks the centenary of the birth of Dylan Thomas, the Swansea-born poet who is now regarded as a giant of 20th-century literature. We can expect heaps of programmes about him in the coming months, but getting in first is this drama about his final days in New York before his death at the age of 39 in November 1953. Tom Hollander plays Thomas, and the story begins as he arrives in the Big Apple, en route to Hollywood where he plans to write an opera with Stravinsky. The trip west is self-funded, but Thomas needs to raise the cash by taking part in a production of Under Milk Wood at Manhattan's prestigious Poetry Centre, followed by a tour of talks and readings – which he would never complete.

10.30 Imagine: Rio 50 Degrees – Carry on CaRIOca. New series. Alan Yentob presents another run of arts documentaries. Brazil is less than a month away from hosting the football World Cup and in 2016 the Olympic Games will come to Rio de Janeiro. As the eyes of the world prepare to focus on the city, documentary film-maker Julien Temple explores its cultural history, which is one of extremes. While many see it as a tropical paradise, it remains divided by class and ravaged by poverty, enduring an ongoing fight between police and the drug lords from the slums. The film is soundtracked with the exhilarating samba music that has both reflected and influenced the decades of social change in the city.

Jonathan Edwards presents highlights of the 12th staging of the event, as approximately 40,000 runners took part in a race that has become an annual favourite on the calendar. Several of the leading distance runners in the world were expected to be in attendance, along with a number of celebrity competitors.

7.00 Australia with Simon Reeve. The adventurer meets members of one of the most notorious and feared motorcycle gangs in Gold Coast, before heading to the suburbs to meet a vet and his team rescuing and treating injured koalas. In Sydney, he chats to a billionaire who made his fortune in housing for new migrants from Asia and visits the country's first Muslim women's Australian rules football team. On the last leg of his journey, Simon takes to the air to witness devastating and deadly fires ripping through the Bush, before celebrating Australia Day at his final destination of Melbourne. Last in the series. (R)

8.00 The Best of Top Gear. Another selection of highlights from the last two series, looking back at Jeremy Clarkson, Richard Hammond and James May's most memorable stunts and best challenges.

9.00 Dylan Thomas: A Poet in New York. Tom Hollander stars in this drama charting the poet's final days. In 1953 Dylan Thomas went to New York for the last time, his marriage a wreck and his drinking out of control. He was on his way to meet Stravinsky and to bask in New York acclaim – but what was he escaping and how did the intended triumph become a requiem?

Pick of the Week

The final chapter of a remarkable life is told

October 27, 2014 marks the centenary of the birth of Dylan Thomas, the Swansea-born poet who is now regarded as a giant of 20th-century literature.

We can expect heaps of programmes about him in the coming months (including a performance of his most famous work, Under Milk Wood, featuring a cast of famous Welsh faces, including Tom Jones, Sian Phillips and Matthew Rhys), but getting in first is this drama, Dylan Thomas: A Poet in New York, BBC2, 9pm about his final days before his death at the age of 39 in 1953.

Tom Hollander plays Thomas, despite admitting that he wasn't particularly a fan before filming began.

"I was aware of him although I didn't know his poetry very well, but I got exposed to his best poetry," says the actor. "I liked the way Andrew Davies had dramatised this man running out of road, as it were, in his life. He'd done it really well – he's a great writer. That they should have even offered it to me was a wonderful thing."

As well as his writing, Thomas was famous for his voice thanks to the numerous times he appeared in public to read his own work – and getting his vocal characteristics right was crucial to Hollander's performance.

"Because he's a very well recorded performer, it was very easy to discover what he sounded like as a recording artist. It was harder to find out what he sounded like as a man. I sense that he was putting on a performing voice, a declamatory poetry style, but he can't have been talking like that in real life. Or maybe he was…"

Although the focus of A Poet in New York is on the latter part of Thomas's life, there are scenes in which he's a younger man, which gave Hollander a weighty problem – Thomas piled on the pounds during his later years, becoming bloated thanks to his love of the demon drink.

"Eating a lot made me feel ill and the whole thing made me feel dreadful. Without going into the details of it there were unpleasant physical side effects of overeating."

The story begins as Thomas arrives in the Big Apple, en route to Hollywood where he plans to write an opera with Stravinsky.

The trip west is self-funded, but Thomas needs to raise the cash by taking part in a production of Under Milk Wood at Manhattan's prestigious Poetry Centre, followed by a tour of talks and readings. But he never completed them.

Friends later remarked how ill he looked during his stay in New York, and he was taken sick on several occasions before finally going gentle into that good night following a four-day coma.

"It's a sympathetic portrayal of self-destruction and it allows you to get inside him," explains Hollander.

"Tales of self-destruction themselves are often not fun to watch, but it's because you see the two things at the same time – you see the poetry and everything that was greatest about him at the same time as you're seeing him destroy himself."

The excellent supporting cast includes Essie Davis, Phoebe Fox, Ewen Bremner, Celt Llewellyn Jones, Jamie Ballard, Demetri Goritsas and Jason May.

Tom Hollander stars in Dylan Thomas: A Poet in New York, Sunday, BBC2, 9pm

Best of the Rest

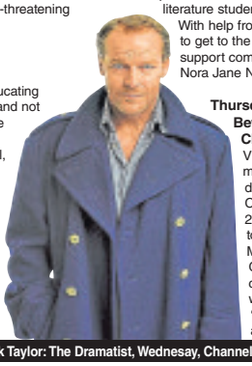
Monday
RHS Chelsea Flower Show 2014
BBC2, 8pm
In the last couple of years, the younger generation have grown to love Chelsea as the high-powered, hotbed of arguments that famous reality programme shows it to be. However, for many, it's the colourful sprawling garden designs of the Chelsea Flower Show that the area will always really be famous for. As always, the BBC is doing everything it can to ensure those not fortunate enough to attend the event can get the full experience from the comfort of their own homes. Monty Don and Joe Swift launch the week of programmes from the horticultural event. Plus, Sherlock star Benedict Cumberbatch and his actress mother Wanda Ventham share their favourite Chelsea moments.

D-Day's Sunken Secrets
Channel 5, 9pm
An evening of history lessons on Channel 5 begins here, with an expedition to look for military items from the Normandy landings. A group of historians, wreck detectives, scientists and D-Day veterans board two mini-submarines to scour the seabed for objects from the landings of June 1944 – and it's not a task carried out in vain. On the bottom of the ocean, the group comes across a collection of American Sherman tanks that were specially adapted to float, and the wreck of the SS Leopoldville, a troopship hit by a German U-boat with the loss of 800 lives. Meanwhile, veteran Bill Allen, submariner Jim Booth and Tim Beckett, whose father designed a deep-sea harbour used to supply the invasion, give their accounts.

Tuesday
Ben Fogle's Animal Clinic
Channel 5, 8pm
In the latest instalment, the 'aww' factor is turned up a notch as cardiologist Jo carries out complex surgery to fit a pacemaker to Kasey, a German wire-haired pointer. Kasey is 10-years old, and until recently used to take part in field trials, but had to give that up when his heart condition got worse. Meanwhile, over at Chester zoo, Gabby's got her hands full in trying to get a blood sample from a female giraffe six metres tall. Plus, on-call equine surgeon Neil Townsend has to carry out emergency surgery on a foal with life-threatening abdominal pains.

Mr Drew's School for Boys
Channel 4, 9pm
The headteachers of Channel 4's Educating series are making quite an impact – and not only on the students they teach. While we hanker for another series of the Yorkshire counterpart with Mr Mitchell, Mr Drew down in Essex has been tiding us over, with his strict but fair ways of bringing these wayward boys up to scratch. But here's where we see if all his hard work has paid off, as there are just a few days until the boys leave for home. Mr Drew and his team are preparing their students for their return to regular school, but an end-of-term camping trip could go one of two ways, as the parents regain control.

Wednesday
Jack Taylor: The Dramatist
Channel 5, 10pm
Iain Glen returns as the eponymous Irish ex-cop who defends the lost and broken folks of Galway. In this episode, our hero investigates the death of student Sarah Bradley, who dies after falling from the roof of the university. She is dressed in a theatrical costume and a ring of paper wrapped around her hand contains a typed message. The police assume she committed suicide under the influence of heroin, but Professor Gorman does not accept the Garda's theory and thinks his literature student has been murdered. With help from sidekick, Cody, he tries to get to the bottom of the case. Good support comes from Killian Scott and Nora Jane Noone.



Jack Taylor: The Dramatist, Wednesay, Channel 5, 10pm

Thursday
Beware! Cowboy Builders
Channel 5, 8pm
Viewers with long memories may recall a particularly devastating edition of Cowboy Builders from 2009, when the show came to the aid of Stuart and Michelle Trigg in Thornbury, Gloucestershire. The couple's problems began when they enlisted some 'professional' help to build an extension for their home, only to be left with an unfinished, unsafe and thoroughly botched job. In this programme, the last in the current series, Dominic Littlewood and Gabrielle Blackman head back to the West Country to see how the poor, put-upon Trigg family are getting on.

From There to Here
BBC1, 9pm
Philip Glenister stars in this drama about a man whose life changes for ever after he is caught up in the 1996 IRA bomb blast that rocked Manchester. Escaping serious injury, Daniel comes to the rescue of a single mother and helps her home, realising she lives in the working-class neighbourhood where he grew up, before he was adopted and went on to live a more charmed life. Now he has it all – wife, kids, his own business – but he is feeling restless after his near-death experience. Saskia Reeves, Steven Mackintosh, Liz White and Bernard Hill co-star.

Friday
Gogglebox
Channel 4, 9pm
The Royle Family's Caroline Aherne narrates a final visit to the living rooms of some of Britain's most opinionated TV fanatics as the third series of Gogglebox draws to a close. Posh tipplers Steph and Dom, hairdressers Christopher and Stephen, the lovable Leon and June and other favourites offer sharp, insightful, passionate and sometimes emotional critiques of the week's television from the comfort of their own sofas, fiercely discussing everything from talent contests to topical documentaries. Last in the series.

Marking 30th anniversary of popular SEAT Ibiza

By Sharon Walters

This week it is 30 years since the very first Ibiza rolled off the production line in SEAT's Zona Franca factory.

Since that day, the Ibiza has remained SEAT's most iconic and popular car, with sales approaching five million across three decades and four generations.

The car was a game-changer for SEAT, the first designed and developed completely by the Spanish company from start to finish – with a little help from some friends. Namely, collaborations with Giorgetto Giugiaro's Italdesign design company, coachbuilder Karmann, and Porsche helped make the Ibiza a truly cutting-edge small car, and the foundation of 30 years of ongoing success.

The very embodiment of the Spain of the '80s, the first SEAT Ibiza was ambitious, dynamic and ground-breaking. Its name, taken from the Mediterranean island, reinforced the exotic image given to it by virtue of its Spanish roots.

The backdrop chosen for the world première of the SEAT Ibiza was the prestigious Paris Motor Show in 1984, and from then on the car has gone from strength to strength, achieving success both in its domestic market and abroad, with almost seven of every ten produced exported; 69 per cent of 5,000,000 total Ibiza production has been exported to more than 75 countries worldwide.

The most important markets for the Ibiza during the early years were Italy, France, Germany, United Kingdom, Portugal and Mexico, in addition to Spain.

SEAT will celebrate this resounding and continued success with the launch of a 30th anniversary model, set to go on sale in June.

SEAT ended the '80s with production and sales records, and became a member of the Volkswagen Group. Until 1993 the brand's activity had been concentrated in the Barcelona Zona Franca, but its membership of a new group, the success of its new models, and the need to increase production meant that a new industrial production complex was required. SEAT would be provided with a new modern factory next to its technical centre in Martorell, opened in 1991.

The second-generation Ibiza would be the first vehicle built at SEAT's new Martorell production facility. More than that, the establishment of the new factory would give rise to the creation of a suppliers' industrial estate, which at that time comprised 20 companies.

Today Martorell remains one of the most modern and flexible factories in Europe, its international standing attested to when SEAT received the 'Automotive Lean Production' award. Almost 700 Ibiza vehicles are built every day on Martorell's Line 1, employing around 1,600 people directly; all told, SEAT generates direct and indirect employment for approximately 70,000 families.

Distinguished

The Ibiza is 100 per cent SEAT, since it was the first vehicle designed and developed in its entirety by the company. Design has always formed part of the Spanish brand's DNA, and in the case of the Ibiza the four generations have borne the hallmark of distinguished names in the field of automotive design.

For the first generation of the Ibiza (1984-1993), SEAT collaborated with Italdesign, the company of world famous Italian designer Giorgetto Giugiaro, with Karmann for the development of the bodywork, and Porsche for the technology of the 'System Porsche' engines.

There was a clear aesthetic leap in the second generation (1993-2002), which again bore the hallmark of Giugiaro. The lines were rounded and aerodynamic, and the car given a level of equipment and mechanical sophistication that were in those days normally only found in cars in the segments above.

Italian designer Walter de'Silva, the current head of design at the Volkswagen Group, was responsible for the outline of the third-generation Ibiza (2002-2008), which took another step forward in manufacture quality, engine range and dynamic performance. Walter de'Silva introduced more attractive aesthetics, while the car's dynamic prowess took another leap forward thanks to the 'Agile Chassis' concept developed by SEAT's technical centre in Martorell.

The current generation of the Ibiza (2008 onwards) is the work of Luc Donckerwolke, head of design at SEAT in 2008 and formerly of Lamborghini. The concept of 'Arrow Design' was introduced with the 2008 Ibiza, resulting in a car distinctively sportier than its predecessors.The first SEAT Ibiza with a clear sports calling was the SXI with a 100 PS engine, the forerunner of the current Cupra and FR versions. In 1996, the company presented the Cupra version, with a 2.0-litre 150 PS engine, offering outstanding performance and a distinctly sporty image.

The Ibiza Kit Car was a much-awaited launch, with which SEAT achieved a brilliant triumph in the FIA 2.0-litre World Rally Championships – a success that was repeated in 1997 and 1998.

Volvo hybrid gets boost of R-Design

The super-efficient Volvo V60 Plug-in Hybrid – one of the best-selling hybrid-electrified vehicles in Europe in 2013 – is now also available in Volvo Cars' R-Design specification.

"We sold almost 8,000 plug-in hybrids in 2013. Adding the R-Design dynamic attributes to the V60 Plug-in Hybrid – the world's first diesel plug-in hybrid – will further broaden its appeal. The customer gets segment-topping performance combined with outstanding efficiency," says Alain Visser, senior vice-president marketing, sales and customer service at Volvo Car Group.

The Volvo V60 D6 AWD R-Design Lux Nav is available from £51,675 (excluding £5,000 Plug-In Car Grant) on the road and can be ordered now, with expected deliveries from August.

The V60 Plug-in Hybrid R-Design features a number of unique interior and exterior features which create a sporty presence. The exterior blends the Plug-in Hybrid identification with the R-Design front bumper and grille, rear diffuser and 18in Ixion wheels.

Inside, the car comes with a full R-Design interior, featuring sports seats as standard with a blend of black nubuck textile and perforated leather. Amongst the other unique R-Design features, it also includes sports pedals, sports floor mats and charcoal headlining. The car retains the special plug-in hybrid instrumentation and information.

Contact

Also fitted as standard on all PHEVs is Volvo's telematic system, Volvo On Call. This system allows users to use a free mobile app to access a number of functions and keeps the driver in constant contact with the vehicle, no matter where they are.

The front wheels of the V60 Plug-in Hybrid are powered by a five-cylinder 2.4-litre turbodiesel producing 215hp and 440Nm of torque. The car has a six-speed automatic transmission.

The rear axle is powered by an electric motor producing 70 horsepower and 200Nm of torque. It is supplied with power from an 11.2kW/h lithium-ion battery pack installed under the floor of the load compartment.

The driver selects the required driving mode via three buttons that give the car three entirely different temperaments: Pure, Hybrid or Power.

In the default hybrid mode, the carbon dioxide emissions are down to just 48g/km. This corresponds to fuel consumption of 155.2 mpg (NEDC certification driving cycle for hybrids).

What is more, at the touch of a button the driver can choose to cover up to 31 miles on pure electric power - or utilise the combined capacity of the diesel engine and electric motor to create a veritable driving machine that offers 215+70 horsepower and 440+200Nm of torque.

MG's new supermini looks like a good choice

By David Banner

The MG badge is back. We could argue it came back over 18 months ago with MG6, but that is a large saloon vehicle, whereas the MG3 is attempting to put back a sense of style, bit of fun and certainly affordability into the marketplace.

The MG3 is pitched into the important supermini category, and it should hold its head in this company.

It has a reasonably economical engine, high levels of specification, and it does not look too out of place in the car park.

And one of the big plusses with the MG is its pricing structure.

There are four derivatives and the entry level starts at a mere £8,399, even the top specification is priced at just £9999, and this has to be superb value for money, assuming the vehicle lives up to expectations.

The new MG3 is mostly built in China by MG's new owners, SAIC, the final assembly takes place in the UK. The vehicle was designed and styled in the UK, where over 300 engineers and designers are employed to produce vehicles suitable for the UK and European market, and certainly the ride and handling have been honed to perfection for our bumpy roads.

It is a delight to see the octagonal badge back on the bonnet and also displayed on the cylinder head cover in the engine bay.

The whole range is powered by a single 1.5-litre engine which produces 105ps. There have been complaints the engine lacks power and is a lethargic. I take the viewpoint this is an engine which needs to be revved.

It is not an engine which produces a lot of torque at low speed, but when you rev it and get the needle above 3,000 revs, then it starts to reward you.

Delight

The five-speed gearbox was a delight to operate, and even allowing for the lack of torque, it was not really problematic to change gear frequently to make progress. A top speed of 108 mph and 0-60mph in 10.4 seconds is achievable.

The economics of running the vehicle are ones of not very high mpg figures. The manufacturer suggests 48-plus should be available, I managed to achieve 40mpg over a varied 4,000 miles whilst in ownership of the vehicle.

The CO2 emissions at 136 g/km are not going to place the MG3 in the ultra cheap Vehicle Excise Duty category and that is a shame.

The big feature for me, however, is the huge amount of interior space. Iif a small supermini is your choice but you need to move four adults, five at a push, then you seriously need to check out the MG3.

My 6ft-plus frame in the driver's seat still enabled a 6ft-plus person to sit behind me, with ample amounts of leg, head and shoulder room. This really is worth a couple of extra ticks on your shopping list. The boot space was adequate but not overly generous.

The interior has sadly followed the fashion of today with lots of black plastic and a very dark overall look. However, there was some wonderful contrasting red stitching on the steering wheel and on the superb sport-type seats.

The vehicle, from a driver's perspective, was not overly complicated – just radio controls contained on the steering wheel, and two stalks on the steering column, one for the wipers and combined computer and one for the lights and indicators.

There was a cubby-hole on the dashboard, hidden behind a roller cover. The kind people at MG had fitted as an afterthought, an iPad connection. This to me was a bit of a waste of money and wasted space.

Extensively

Four trim levels are available, my test car was the 3 FORM Sport and this was extensively equipped. It included air conditioning, the driver and passenger's wing mirrors are electronically adjustable and heated, and in addition there was a DAB radio and a Bluetooth facility to either stream in your music or telephone.

Safety has not been overlooked and there are a plethora of airbags including driver and passenger, side and curtain airbags.

The MG is also equipped with an anti-lock braking system and a stability control. One feature which works quite nicely is the hill-hold control.

MG is hopeful of selling 2,000 to 2,500 of the MG3 and I can see no reason why this target should not be achieved, certainly the pricing structure MG has introduced makes this particular derivative a very attractive option.

I just hope against hope that the Chinese owners of MG will start very soon to re-introduce a two-seater sports car, which the market is just crying out for.

Prices range from £8,399 to £9,999 and a three-year 60,000-mile warranty is included.

More Skodas join scheme

Every model from Skoda's GreenLine fleet of environmentally-advanced cars is now available on the Motability scheme.

Over 20 different variants offer customers high levels of safety, practicality and a generous specification.

New to the Motability scheme, the recently-launched Octavia GreenLine III 1.6 TDI 110 hatch and estate allow motorists to benefit from one of the lowest emissions in the class at 85g/km CO2 (VED Band A), a combined cycle fuel economy to match at 88.3mpg as well as a substantial load capacity of up to 1,740 litres.

There is ample space for the storage of luggage and mobility equipment, whilst Skoda's clever storage solutions further enhance the practicality of the Octavia.

Carrying zero advance payment and zero road tax, the Fabia hatch and estate line-up has also been extended on the programme to include the GreenLine II 1.2 TDI model in both guises.

They join the five-door Rapid Spaceback hatch which brings nearly 1,400 litres of space whilst delivering exceptionally low running costs thanks to emissions of just 99g/km and an impressive fuel consumption of 74.3mpg.

The facelifted Yeti and Yeti Outdoor 1.6 TDI GreenLine II crossover models are ideal for those requiring an elevated driving position and access to more rugged environments.

Furthermore, to help customers choose the right vehicle according to their individual needs, Skoda UK has launched its new-look Motability website – www.skoda.co.uk/motability.

The upgraded portal supplies dedicated offers and product information for each model available on the scheme, in addition to a downloadable Motability price guide.

Andy Thomas, sales operations – rental and motability manager at Skoda UK, said: "The addition of the entire GreenLine model range further reinforces our continued strategy of building brand presence on the scheme."

To qualify, individuals must be in receipt of the Higher Rate Mobility Component of the Disability Living Allowance, the Enhanced Rate of the Mobility Component of the Personal Independence Payment, War Pensioners' Mobility Supplement or Armed Forces Independence Payment, which will be taken in lieu of the four-weekly allowance.

Volvo hybrid gets boost of R-Design

The super-efficient Volvo V60 Plug-in Hybrid – one of the best-selling hybrid-electrified vehicles in Europe in 2013 – is now also available in Volvo Cars' R-Design specification.

"We sold almost 8,000 plug-in hybrids in 2013. Adding the R-Design dynamic attributes to the V60 Plug-in Hybrid – the world's first diesel plug-in hybrid – will further broaden its appeal. The customer gets segment-topping performance combined with outstanding efficiency," says Alain Visser, senior vice-president marketing, sales and customer service at Volvo Car Group.

The Volvo V60 D6 AWD R-Design Lux Nav is available from £51,675 (excluding £5,000 Plug-In Car Grant) on the road and can be ordered now, with expected deliveries from August.

The V60 Plug-in Hybrid R-Design features a number of unique interior and exterior features which create a sporty presence. The exterior blends the Plug-in Hybrid identification with the R-Design front bumper and grille, rear diffuser and 18in Ixion wheels.

Inside, the car comes with a full R-Design interior, featuring sports seats as standard with a blend of black nubuck textile and perforated leather. Amongst the other unique R-Design features, it also includes sports pedals, sports floor mats and charcoal headlining. The car retains the special plug-in hybrid instrumentation and information.

Contact

Also fitted as standard on all PHEVs is Volvo's telematic system, Volvo On Call. This system allows users to use a free mobile app to access a number of functions and keeps the driver in constant contact with the vehicle, no matter where they are.

The front wheels of the V60 Plug-in Hybrid are powered by a five-cylinder 2.4-litre turbodiesel producing 215hp and 440Nm of torque. The car has a six-speed automatic transmission.

The rear axle is powered by an electric motor producing 70 horsepower and 200Nm of torque. It is supplied with power from an 11.2kW/h lithium-ion battery pack installed under the floor of the load compartment.

The driver selects the required driving mode via three buttons that give the car three entirely different temperaments: Pure, Hybrid or Power.

In the default hybrid mode, the carbon dioxide emissions are down to just 48g/km. This corresponds to fuel consumption of 155.2 mpg (NEDC certification driving cycle for hybrids).

What is more, at the touch of a button the driver can choose to cover up to 31 miles on pure electric power - or utilise the combined capacity of the diesel engine and electric motor to create a veritable driving machine that offers 215+70 horsepower and 440+200Nm of torque.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

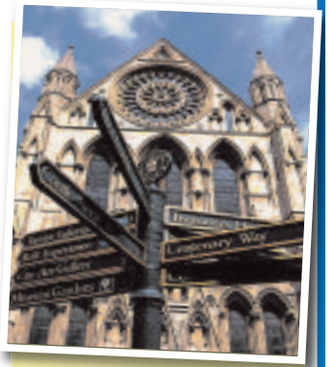
star extra TRAVEL

Scarborough, Whitby and York

Experience a land of towering cliffs, snug harbour villages and fantastic towns each with their own individual charm. Combine all this with the North Yorkshire Moors National Park and you have the perfect ingredients for a relaxing long weekend break.



Beginning in Scarborough, enjoy a traditional seaside town with Norman castle ruins. There is also a colourful and pretty town to explore full of elegant buildings, shops and cafes.

At Whitby, see the eerie remains of the cliff top abbey dominating this picturesque fishing port. Take the 199 steps that lead to one of the first Anglo Saxon churches in the country whose churchyard inspired Bram Stoker to conceive the setting for his world famous book – Dracula.

Enjoy time in York to explore this magnificent city. Discover York Minster or the Castle Museum or maybe visit the Yorkshire Museum with fine examples of Viking craftmanship (entrance fees payable locally) or simply do a spot of shopping in the narrow lanes of 'The Shambles'.

There will also be free time to spend in Harrogate on this four-day break.

FROM £209
Four days departing June 20

PRICE INCLUDES:
- Return coach travel
- Three nights half-board accommodation
- Visits to Scarborough and Whitby
- Visits to York and Harrogate
- Optional train journey on the North Yorkshire Moors Railway
- Single rooms subject to availability - supplement applies

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14(1)(A) AND THE MOTORWAY TRAFFIC (ENGLAND AND WALES) REGULATIONS 1982-REGULATION 16(2) THE M6 TOLL (SLIP ROADS) (TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2014

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport has made an Order on the M6 Toll Motorway in the County of Staffordshire and the City of Birmingham to allow safety fence, drainage and street lighting maintenance work to be carried out.

1. the effect of the Order will be to close, in phases, various lanes of the slip road leading –
   a) from the northbound carriageway of the M6 Toll at M6 Toll Junction T3;
   b) from the northbound carriageway of the M6 Toll at M6 Toll Junction T4;
   c) to the northbound carriageway of the M6 Toll at M6 Toll Junction T4;
   d) to the northbound carriageway of the M6 toll at M6 Toll Junction T6;
   e) from the northbound carriageway of the M6 Toll leading to the M6 Toll Motorway Service Area at Norton Canes;
   f) from the northbound carriageway of the M6 Toll to its junction with the slip road leading to the southbound carriageway of the M6 Toll at M6 Toll Junction T6; and allow traffic to run on the hard shoulder.
2. close the slip road leading –
   a) from the southbound carriageway of the M6 Toll at M6 Toll Junction T6;
   b) from the southbound carriageway of the M6 Toll at M6 Toll Motorway Service Area at Norton Canes;
   c) from the northbound carriageway of the M6 Toll at M6 Toll Junction T8;
   d) from the southbound carriageway of the M6 Toll at M6 Toll Junction T3;
3. impose a 50 miles per hour speed restriction on the lengths of the M6 Toll described above in 1. a) b) c) d) e) and f);

Work will be carried out overnight in phases, between 21:00 hours and 06:00 hours and is expected to start on Tuesday 27 May 2014 and continue for two weeks. The Order will come into force on Tuesday 20 May 2014.

Vehicles being used for police, fire brigade or ambulance purposes will be exempt from the speed restriction and closures. Vehicles being used for special forces purposes will be exempt from the speed restriction, and vehicles being used in connection with the works or by a traffic officer will be exempt from the closures. Diversion routes via M6 Toll Junctions T4 and T7, A5, A5195, M6 Junction 12, A4061, A460, A446 and A38 will be signed.

Staffordshire County Council

HAYES WAY, CANNOCK
TEMPORARY CLOSURE OF FOOTWAY

NOTICE is hereby given that the Staffordshire County Council intend, not less than seven days from the date of this Notice, to make an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit pedestrians from proceeding along the southern footway of Hayes Lane, Cannock from its roundabout junction with Pheasant Way to its roundabout junction with A460 Eastern Way, a distance of approximately 120 metres.

The preferred alternative route for pedestrians will be available on the northern footway of Hayes Way.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON 02 JUNE 2014, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THE WORKS WILL BE COMPLETED BY 27 JUNE 2014.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the Highway Improvement works, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the footway, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

Taylor to return for charity match

FORMER Walsall favourite Kris Taylor will return to the Banks's Stadium in a special charity game – just weeks after returning to action following his battle with cancer.

Taylor, who underwent surgery and chemotherapy after being diagnosed with testicular cancer earlier this year, is among several former Saddlers heroes who will take part in shirt sponsor CAT Communications' charity game at the stadium next Thursday (22). Kick-off is 7.30pm.

The 30-year-old, who now plays for Hednesford Town and had spells at Manchester United and AFC Telford during his career, made more than 90 appearances for the Saddlers in a five-year spell between 2002 and 2007.

His return will be particularly poignant for supporters, who have held a minute's applause in the 15th minute of matches since his diagnosis. Taylor wore the number 15 shirt during his time with the club.

Taylor is one of around 30 former players set to appear.. Other names signed up include Zigor Aranalde, Mark Kinsella, Ian Roper and David Kelly. Admission is £2 for adults, £1 concessions.

Fleet innings helps firsts to victory

Cricket

Cannock 1sts 176-5 Old Wulfs 1sts 175
Cannock won by five wickets

CANNOCK recorded win number three on their visit to Old Wulfs. After putting the hosts in, Cannock restricted them to 175 from their 50 overs.

Jamie Acaster top scored with 57, while Phil Heighway took 5-21. Cannock reached their target in the 40th with Will Fleet unbeaten on 56.

Cannock 2nds 158-6 Old Wulfs 2nds 211-5
Cannock losing draw

Cannock seconds, fielding a much-changed side due to player availability, had to settle for a losing draw in a rain affected game.

After winning the toss Cannock chose to field and Tom Cheema (106) and Kelvyn Brookes (53) saw Old Wulfs post 211-5.

With eight overs lost due to rain, Cannock's winning draw target was 178 but they fell short by 20 runs. John Cooke top scored with 40 with Jamie Probert (38no) and Tom Bull (23no) providing a late flurry.

Cannock 3rds 98-6 Springvale 2nds 82
Cannock won by 16 runs

Cannock were asked to bat first on a wet bowler-friendly wicket and found runs hard to come by.

Careful batting saw Cannock with wickets in hand for the last 10 overs where a late flurry of runs saw them post 98-6 from their 50 overs. Ant Wood top scored with 47.

In reply the Springvale batsmen also found runs as hard to come by and a steady fall of wickets saw Cannock claim victory by 16 runs, Matt Bull taking 4-34 , Ant Wood 3-12 and Ant Leech 3-23 .

Cannock 4ths 74-6 Fordhouses 4ths 185-8
Cannock losing draw

A battling display saw Cannock fourths come away with a losing draw.

Cannock put Fordhouses in to bat. Dave Robinson (4-33) helped reduce the hosts to 47-4 before sisters Charlotte and Kathryn While shared in a stand worth 88 to put the Fordhouses innings back on track.

With Cannock's innings reduced to 32 overs by the weather, they managed to post 74-6 to take the losing draw. James Wilson top scored with 16no.

A perfect Lockmen start gets reversed

Willenhall Town 2
Cradley Town 4

THE Lockmen had a perfect start with the gale and rain behind them when a ball into the box was touched home by Scott Harris after 90 seconds.

The Reds should have had a penalty at the start of the second half but after signalling it he lined up for a free-kick on the edge of the box instead, which was cleared.

With the gale behind them Cradley began to pin The Lockmen back and it was no surprise when they levelled through Chris Bladen's flicked header on 55 minutes. sub Mikey Clarke saw a free-kick headed off the line.

Bladen then doubled his tally when a risky back-pass saw Ben Newton slip, but he somehow got back to prevent Bladen netting from on the line, but the rebound was alleged to have crossed the line and a goal was given.

On 71 minutes he completed his hat-trick with a thumping strike from 15 yards that screamed in.

A minute later Cradley sub Spencer Blackham made it four. Willenhall scored the best goal of the gamethroughHarry Rickus. The lockmen never did enough to deserve any points.

Supersub Earl grants Hawkins' cup wishes

Cannock Chase Football League
Premier League Cup Final

A LATE winning goal sent Hawkins Sports delirious as they beat Littleton 3-2 in front of the Sky cameras to win the Heath Hayes Cons Cup.

Littleton opened the scoring through Gavin Girvan but with the wind at their backs Hawkins Sports equalised through Dave Waple then went in front before half time thanks to Brian Bradshaw who slotted home.

The second half saw Littleton have the wind advantage and with 15 minutes to go they levelled the scores with a goal straight from a corner kick.

A good entertaining cup final looked to be heading for extra time until sub Earl Grant poked home what was to be the winner with his first touch.

The final whistle went and joyous celebrations in front of the cameras of Barclays Premier League who were at Stafford Town FC to show footage of the game for their website.

Guest of honours were Chris Cox of Heath Hayes Conservative Club and Mark Shipp of The Chronicle, while a surprise celebrity star for Barclays, former Liverpool and England winger John Barnes, was on hand to present the medals and then the Premier Cup to Hawkins Sports FC in front of a crowd of 157.

Cannock Charity Cup Final

Second division Victoria finally made it third time lucky by winning a cup final, beating third division Bridgtown Social 4-1.

Football

Victoria took the lead from the penalty spot on 13 minutes after the Social's keeper was sent off and Lee Charles hammered home.

Further goals from Dominic Oliver, Steve Cooke and Lee Thomas saw off a battling 10-man Bridgtown Social team who never gave up.

Guests of John Wells, Mrs Moseley presented her late father's trophy to Victoria at Walsall Wood in front of a crowd of 138.

Jock Corrigan Memorial Cup Final

Last season's losing finalists Rugeley Utd return again this year looking to win this cup for a third time. Going a goal down to holders Ridware Oak they fought back to triumph 6-2.

Stuart Tapper scored a hat-trick. Mark Bandurak added two with one from Ashley Andrews. They now play Brereton Lions on Sunday, May 25, kick off at 2pm.

The next Cannock Chase League Cup Final is on Friday, May 23, the Brereton town Cup being played at Brereton Social between Poets Corner FC and The Littleton, kick off 7.30pm.

Fan-tastic support for Wolves

WOLVES have the second-highest away support in the Football League.

Kenny Jackett's League One champions were watched by an average of 2,645 supporters this season, below only Championship side Leeds' total of 3,132.

The average number of travelling Wolves supporters eclipsed next-best Nottingham Forest (2,321), Sheffield Wednesday (2,220) and Leicester (2,140).

Wolves fans swelled the highest attendances at 10 of the 22 other League One grounds.The Molineux average home gate, 20,878 was higher than all but six in the Championship – Brighton, Leeds, Leicester, Derby, Forest and Wednesday.

Khalsa go through to Hunt final

Pelsall Villa 2
Sporting Khalsa 4

KHALSA progressed into the final of JW Hunt with a victory over Midland combination side Pelsall Villa at Castlecroft Stadium.

Khalsa scored first in the 15th minute thanks to Jordon Uppal. In the 22nd minute a mistake from Khalsa keeper Mario Kisiel let the Pelsall forward in to equalise. John Cordy smashed the ball home to give Khalsa the lead just before half time.

Khalsa increased the lead through Liam Hughes. Pelsall scored in the 70th minute. Khalsa grabbed a fourth in the 82nd minute through substitute Ben Love.

Khalsa will play Tividale FC in the final on Wednesday (21) at Molineux.

Sell club quickly, urge the Villa fans

VILLA fans are calling on Randy Lerner to sell quickly to ensure the club can return to the top.

The Aston Villa Supporters Trust (AVST) have also backed Lerner's decision to put the claret and blues on the market. The owner is asking for around £200m for the club he bought for £62.6m in 2006.

The American was due to meet manager Paul Lambert and chief executive Paul Faulkner this week to outline a short-term summer plan while a buyer is found.

A Trust statement read: "We would ask that the sale is completed as quickly as possible in order that the new owner can put his team in place, and make the required changes to ensure that Aston Villa become a competitive force on the field again."

The Trust also thanked Lerner for his work over the past eight years and they have asked fans to complete a survey so they can provide feedback to the new owners.

"We would like to place on record our gratitude for all he has done with regards to the infrastructure of the club and his significant investment in Aston Villa over the past eight years," they wrote.

The survey is at http://villatrust.org.uk/

Back to best, says Benteke

CHRISTIAN Benteke is looking for a swift return to Villa and vowed he will be back to his best.

The striker has handed the claret and blues a major boost during a chaotic and uncertain time for the club and boss Paul Lambert.

Owner Randy Lerner put the club up for sale on Monday and rumours persist over Lambert's future, with the pair set to meet in America this week. But Benteke has lifted the mood despite being ruled out for at least six months with an Achilles injury in April.

"I'm convinced I will be back faster than expected. People have said it will take me six months but I will be back faster," he said.

Belgium announced their World Cup squad this week with Benteke forced to miss out. Marc Wilmots' side face Algeria, Russia and South Korea in Brazil.

Villa up for sale with £200m price tag

RANDY Lerner has put Villa up for sale. The chairman released a statement on Monday to finally end the speculation surrounding his future.

Villa secured their Premier League status last week and Lerner has instructed his bank to sell the club.

The American bought the claret and blues for £62.6m in 2006 and is believed to want around £200m after investing heavily in players and wages since.

He has cut back in the last two years – with many expecting his decision – and admitted Villa need fresh investment. He said: "I have engaged Bank of America Merrill Lynch to advise on the sale of Aston Villa. Above all, the debt I owe Aston Villa whether as owner, Chairman, custodian or simply as a fan is to put the club first.

"To make good on that debt, I owe it to Villa to move on, and look for fresh, invigorated leadership, if in my heart I feel I can no longer do the job.

"The last several seasons have been week in, week out battles and having now come through this last season unfortunately limping amidst very meaningful injuries and constant sale rumours, I feel further that now is the time for me to look for new ownership and thus new leadership. I have come to know well that fates are fickle in the business of English football.

"And I feel that I have pushed mine well past the limit. I have asked the world of Paul Lambert and Paul Faulkner and they have both delivered selflessly.

"On a personal level it is time for me, like the Shunammite, to dwell among my own and get on with other aspects of my career, following a sale.

"I am appreciative of the support I have received, even in these last years of comparative struggle when criticism was due, and will look on with others- with fingers crossed, for stronger future performance appropriate to our size and heritage.

"On a practical level, the club will continue with its normal operations and plans for the summer.

"I've no doubt that the core staff at both Villa Park and Bodymoor, to whom I owe a massive debt of friendship and loyalty, will continue to guide and protect the club through this period of transition."

SCHOLARS BREAK JINX TO LIFT CUP

Rushall 1 Chasetown 4

CHASETOWN manager Craig Harris was jubilant after he picked up his first senior trophy at the Banks's Stadium.

In the process broke a spell of 11 losses in a row against arch-rivals Rushall with a 4-1 win.

The Pics, who had finished just outside the play-off positions in the Northern Premier League, were hot favourites to win the final against their neighbours, but they were well beaten in boss Neil Kitching's last game in charge.

Harris said winning the cup went some way towards making up for a season which had seen Chasetown finish well short of the play-offs in the division below Rushall.

He said: "It was a great performance against a very good side and we won the balls in the important areas and passed it well.

Consistency

"That is how we can play but the season has been all about consistency and unfortunately we have not had enough of that but it is something we will try and put right."

The opening goal came on 20 minutes for Chasetown after Chris Gemmell had saved point blank from Jazz Luckie and Simon Brown's flag kick was eventually headed in by Joe Halsall.

Nick Wellecomme increased their lead on 62 minutes and 10 minutes later lobbed Gemmell to make it 3-0.

On 73 minutes, former Rushall midfielder Danny Bragoli produced an equally adept finish. Jamie Spencer produced a fine individual goal a minute from time for what proved a consolation for Rushall. For Kitching, who announced he was stepping down after the final league game of the season, the result and performance was disappointing.

He said: "We looked a bit jaded but didn't play well at all and certainly didn't deserve to win, so there are no excuses, but the depth of our squad should have been enough to do better.

"It's been a fantastic season with winning the Staffordshire Senior Cup and just missing out on the play-offs in a tough league and it has been a great five years at Rushall, it was just a pity we couldn't cap it by winning another trophy."

Rushall: Gemmell; Turner; Wood; Tolley; Caines (c); Martin; Palmer; Craddock; Adebola; Mugisha; Dance.

Subs: Obeng (for Martin 57); Spencer (for Adebola 69);Ellis (for Wood 75); Daniel; Maher (GK)

Chasetown: Price; Farmer; Beckett; Slater (c); Robinson; Halsall; Butler; Bragoli; Wellecomme; Luckie; Brown.

Subs: Smith (for Luckie 45); Gould (for Brown 77); Stephens (for Gould 82); Teesdale ; Watson (GK)

Referee: M Jones. Attendance: 651

Act fast, call over Newton

WOLVES are being urged to act quickly if they want to secure the signing of Newcastle midfielder Conor Newton.

The 22-year-old Geordie, who has negotiated a free transfer from the Magpies to secure first-team football elsewhere, has received offers from two Championship clubs in the last two days.

Newton, who has been tracked by Wolves since before Kenny Jackett was appointed head coach almost a year ago, has been watched by a host of scouts from English clubs in the last two games of the SPL season, where he has been on loan with St Mirren.

Wolves were in attendance at Kilmarnock last Wednesday, along with representatives from Bolton, Wigan and Blackburn. Sheffield Wednesday, Millwall and Rotherham are also keen.

Jackett wants more competition for the attacking central midfield role that out-of-contract Dave Edwards impressed in during the last third of the season.

Box-to-box player Newton is said to be keen on a switch to Wolves, although Jackett has other targets too.

Jackett has to share honours

WOLVES boss Kenny Jackett was named joint League One manager of the year with Leyton Orient's Russell Slade.

Head coach Jackett led Wolves to a sensational season in the third tier but, surprisingly.

Liverpool boss Brendan Rodgers was crowned LMA Manager of the Year.
